I. Introduction and Overview

On March 5, 2025, the Postal Service filed notice with the Commission concerning classification changes for the Business Rate Card (BRC), which is a rate and class not of general applicability for Competitive products.¹ The Postal Service represents that, as required by 39 CFR 3035.105(b), the Notice includes an explanation and justification for the changes, and the effective date, and a schedule of the changed rates. See Notice at 1. The Notice also includes a certification of the vote, and a redacted copy of Governors' Decision 19–1. Id. The changes are intended to take effect on April 1, 2025, or sooner upon favorable review by the Commission. Id. at 1–2.

Attached to the Notice is Attachment A, Governors' Decision No. 19–1, which states the new prices are in accordance with 39 U.S.C. 3632 and 3633 and 39 CFR 3015.5 and 3015.7.² The Governors' Decision provides an analysis of the Competitive products' price and classification changes intended to demonstrate that the changes comply with 39 U.S.C. 3633 and 39 CFR 3015.7(c).³

The Notice includes draft revisions to the Mail Classification Schedule reflecting the changes to this class not of general applicability, the updated terms and conditions, and the BRC price floors and supporting financial material filed under seal. Notice at 2.

Planned rate and classification changes. The Postal Service's planned rate and classification changes “will allow for business customers to utilize the Postal Service's Application Programming Interfaces (APIs) to access BRC rates.” Id. at 1. The Postal Service states that the BRC “provided the Postal Service with the ability to extend dynamic competitive pricing to merchants who use the Postal Service's own Click-N-Ship (CNS) platform,” however, “more and more customers are using APIs to integrate USPS services directly into their own software.” Id. at 2–3. The Postal Service states that with these classification changes, its customers “will be able to access the BRC through the use of APIs as well as through Click-N-Ship (CNS)” and that “[t]he API [t]erms and [c]onditions will provide for the same core restrictions for the BRC as previously provided to the Commission for the original BRC on CNS arrangement.” Id. at 3.

The Postal Service asserts that “BRC rates should continue to be sufficiently distinct from rates available to all
