

use of group designations on the import declaration either under our current authority or through the regulatory authority provided in the amended Lacey Act.

Declaration Form

A printable declaration form is currently available for voluntary submission on the Internet at http://www.aphis.usda.gov/plant_health/lacey_act/index.shtml or from the person listed under FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT. We will continue to revise the declaration form to make editorial changes and otherwise clarify the requirements for the form. To ensure that you are using the most updated form, please visit the APHIS Web site to verify the current version. You may submit completed declaration forms by mail to: The Lacey Act, c/o U.S. Dept of Agriculture, Box 10, 4700 River Road, Riverdale, MD 20737.

As indicated previously, we encourage importers to file the data required by the amended Lacey Act electronically through the Automated Commercial System (ACS). If a paper declaration is used, please submit the original. The declaration form cannot be submitted online or by e-mail.

Additional Information

APHIS will continue to provide the latest information regarding the Lacey Act on our Web site, http://www.aphis.usda.gov/plant_health/lacey_act/index.shtml. The Web site currently contains the Lacey Act, as amended; a slideshow covering background and context, new requirements, commodities and products covered, information on prohibitions, and the current status of implementation of the declaration requirement of the Lacey Act; frequently asked questions; the phase-in implementation plan; and the paper declaration form. The Web site will be updated as new materials become available. We encourage persons interested in receiving timely updates on APHIS' Lacey Act efforts to register for our stakeholder registry at <https://web01.aphis.usda.gov/PPQStakeWeb2.nsf> and select "Lacey Act Declaration" as a topic of interest.

Done in Washington, DC, this 27th day of August 2009.

Kevin Shea,

Acting Administrator, Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service.
