

availability of the ACPAC members, the meeting originally scheduled for March 21 and 22, 2022 will now be held on June 28 and 29, 2022.

II. Agenda

As previously indicated, the Department intended to use the June 28 and 29, 2022 meeting to continue the discussion on Airline Ticket Refunds and to discuss Enhancing Consumer Access to Airline Flight Information. While the NPRM on Airline Ticket Refunds was submitted to the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs (OIRA) for its review, the NPRM is not expected to be issued before the date of this ACPAC meeting. As a result, the Department will schedule a meeting at a future date to discuss the NPRM on Airline Ticket Refunds.

The Department still plans to discuss Enhancing Consumer Access to Airline Flight Information at the June meeting. The Executive Order on Promoting Competition in the American Economy, issued on July 9, 2021 (Competition Executive Order), directed the Department to take action to protect consumers and promote competition. Specifically, the Department is directed, among other things, to “promote enhanced transparency and consumer safeguards, as appropriate and consistent with applicable law, including through potential rulemaking, enforcement actions, or guidance documents, with the aims of: (1) Enhancing consumer access to airline flight information so that consumers can more easily find a broader set of available flights, including by new or lesser known airlines” The ACPAC will consider the topic of enhancing access to airline flight information, including examining what is meant by airline flight information and how best to ensure that consumers can more easily find a broader set of available flights.

The Competition Executive Order also directs the Department to consider initiating a rulemaking to ensure that consumers have ancillary fee information, including baggage fees, change fees, and cancellation fees at the time of ticket purchase. The Department has announced that it has initiated such a rulemaking and plans to issue a notice of proposed rulemaking on transparency of airline ancillary service fees this calendar year. The Department, after consultation with the ACPAC members, has decided to discuss enhancing airline ancillary service fees at the June 28 and 29, 2022 meeting. The ACPAC will consider how best to ensure the disclosure of ancillary service fee information to consumers and whether the sharing of information between airlines and ticket agents is needed to ensure that consumers have access to ancillary fee information when they purchase air transportation from ticket agents.

III. Public Participation

The meetings will be open to the public; however, attendance may be limited due to constraints of the physical meeting space. To register, please send an email to the Department at ACPAC@dot.gov as set forth in the FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT section. The Department is committed to providing equal access to this meeting for all participants. If you need alternative formats or services because of a disability, such as sign language interpreter or other ancillary aids, please contact the person listed in the FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT section.

Members of the public may also present written comments at any time. The docket number referenced above (DOT-OST-2018-0190) has been established for committee documents including any written comments that may be filed. At the discretion of the Chairperson or Designated Federal Officer, after completion of the planned agenda, individual members of the public may provide oral comments time permitting.
