NYSE Amex proposes to identify the next 75 options classes to be added to the Penny Pilot effective May 3, 2010. The Exchange recently filed to extend and expand the Pilot through December 31, 2010.³ In that filing, the Exchange had proposed expanding the Pilot on a quarterly basis to add the next 75 most actively traded multiply listed options classes based on national average daily volume for the six months prior to selection, closing under $200 per share on the Expiration Friday prior to expansion, except that the month immediately preceding their addition to the Penny Pilot will not be used for the purpose of the six month analysis.⁴

NYSE Amex proposes adding the following 75 options classes to the Penny Pilot on May 3, 2010, based on national average daily volume from October 1, 2009 through March 31, 2010:

No written comments were solicited or received with respect to the proposed rule change.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

At any time within 60 days of the filing of the proposed rule change, the Commission may summarily abrogate the rule change if it appears to the Commission that the action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or would otherwise further the purposes of the Act.
