

feel free, if appropriate, to indicate if your perspective is grounded in any personal experience, including any experiences as a member of any community with environmental justice concerns. If you are providing comments as a representative of a Tribal Nation, or as a representative of a U.S. Territory, or any other governmental entity please also feel free to note that as relevant to this or any other question.

4. Ethical Standards, Privacy Protections, and Other Requirements for the Development and Use of Science, Data, and Research

a. What systems or approaches to privacy protections, attribution, and ethical standards have you encountered or developed that have been useful in community-derived experiential data?

b. What suggestions do you have on ethical standards, privacy protections, and other requirements for the development and use of science, data, and research?

5. Research Coordination and Public Access to Federal Data

a. Are there datasets not owned by the Federal government that you have utilized to help support the advancement of environmental justice? If you have used non-Federal data sets to advance environmental justice, which ones have you used and why?

b. How can the Federal government better collaborate across Federal agencies, and partner with State, Tribal, territorial, and local governments, academic institutions, the private sector, the non-profit sector, and other entities to accelerate the development of data, research, and techniques to address gaps and inadequacies in data collection and scientific research that may affect agencies' ability to advance environmental justice?

c. What kinds of tools and resources would help communities and local decision makers better access data and information and address environmental justice in decision making?

d. What recommendations do you have for improving the public accessibility of data and information produced or distributed by the Federal Government, including through the use of digital and spatial formats, where appropriate?

6. Data Analysis and Methodological Considerations

a. What methods do you recommend for disaggregating environmental risk, exposure, and health data by race, national origin, income, socioeconomic status, age, sex, disability, and/or other readily accessible and appropriate categories?

b. What methods do you recommend for analyzing cumulative impacts (including risks) from multiple sources, pollutants or chemicals, and exposure pathways, and accounting for non-chemical stressors and current and anticipated climate change?

c. What methods, processes, or structures do you recommend for respectfully collecting, maintaining, and analyzing information, in collaboration with Tribal Nations, on consumption patterns of fish, wildlife, and plants related to subsistence and cultural practices of Tribal and Indigenous populations?

7. Additional Considerations

a. Is there anything else you would like to be considered in the development of the Environmental Justice Science, Data, and Research Plan as described in E.O. 14096?
