ACTION: Notice; amendment.

SUMMARY: The Employment and Training Administration published a document in the Federal Register of April 17, 2002, concerning the availability of grant funds to award a grant to "grass-roots" organizations or small faith-based and community-based non-profit organizations with the ability to connect to the nation's workforce development system. Amendment

In the Federal Register of April 17, 2002, in FR Doc. 02-9259, on page 18931, in the second column, add the following paragraph after the first full paragraph.

The Establishment Clause of the First Amendment of the United States Constitution prohibits the government from directly funding religious activity. These grants may not be used for instruction in religion or sacred literature, worship, prayer, proselytizing or other inherently religious practices. The services provided under these grants must be secular and non-ideological. Grant or sub-grant recipients, therefore, may not and will not be defined by reference to religion. Neutral, secular criteria that neither favor nor disfavor religion must be employed in their selection. In addition, under the WIA and DOL regulations implementing the Workforce Investment Act, a recipient may not employ or train a participant in sectarian activities, or permit participants to construct, operate, or maintain any part of a facility that is primarily used or devoted to sectarian instruction or worship. Under WIA, no individual shall be excluded from participation in, denied the benefits of, subjected to discrimination under, or denied employment in the administration of or in connection with, any such program or activity because of race, color, religion, sex (except as otherwise permitted under title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972), national origin, age, disability, or political affiliation or belief.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 8th day of May, 2002,

James W. Stockton,

Grant Officer,

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The Department of Labor, as part of its continuing effort to reduce paperwork and respondent burden, conducts a preclearance consultation program to provide the general public and Federal agencies with an opportunity to comment on proposed and/or continuing collections of information in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (PRA95) [44 U.S.C. 3506(c)(2)(A)]. This program helps to ensure that requested data can be provided in the desired format, reporting burden (time and financial resources) is minimized, collection instruments are clearly understood, and the impact of collection requirements on respondents can be properly assessed. Currently, the Employment Standards Administration, Wage and Hour Division (WHD) is soliciting comments concerning the following proposed collection: Housing Terms and Conditions. A copy of the proposed information collection request can be obtained by contacting the office listed below in the addressee section of this Notice.

DATES: Written comments must be submitted to the office listed in the addressee section below on or before July 12, 2002.

ADDRESSES: Ms. Patricia A. Forkel, U.S. Department of Labor, 200 Constitution Ave., NW., Room S-3201, Washington, DC 20210, telephone (202) 693-0339, fax (202) 693-1451, EMail pforkel@fenix2.dol-esa.gov. Please use only one method of transmission for comments (mail, fax, or EMail).

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

The Wage and Hour Division (WHD) administers the Migrant and Seasonal Agricultural Protection Act (MSPA). Section 201(c) of MSPA, 29 U.S.C. 1801 et seq., requires that any farm labor contractor, agricultural employer or agricultural association that provides housing to any migrant agricultural worker, post in a conspicuous place or present to such worker a statement of the terms and conditions, if any, of occupancy of such housing. In addition, section 201(g) requires that such information be provided in English, or as necessary and reasonable, in a language common to the workers and that the Department of Labor make forms available to provide such information. Section 500.75(f) and (g) of Regulations, 29 CFR Part 500, of MSPA, sets forth the terms of occupancy of housing which are to be posted or given in a written statement to the worker. Section 500.1(i)(2) provides for optional Form WH-521, which may be used to satisfy sections 201(c) and 201(g) of MSPA. Optional Form WH-521 is printed in English/Spanish. Form WH-521 in other languages is not available at this time. The information collection is currently approved by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) for use through September 2002.

II. Review Focus

The Department of Labor is particularly interested in comments which:

- Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;
- Evaluate the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;
- Enhance the quality, utility and clarity of the information to be collected; and
- Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submissions of responses.

III. Current Actions

The Department of Labor seeks an extension of approval of optional Form WH-521, which may be used to satisfy sections 201(c) and 201(g) of MSPA. Form WH-521 is an optional form which a farm labor contractor, agricultural employer, and agricultural association can post or present to a migrant agricultural worker listing the terms and conditions for occupancy of housing. While use of the form is optional, disclosure of the information is required by MSPA. The optional form completed by the employer provides an easy method for the employer to satisfy the disclosure requirements.

Completion of the form and disclosure also provides the migrant agricultural workers with information enabling them to understand the conditions under which they may occupy housing provided by farm labor contractors, agricultural employers or agricultural associations. There are no changes to this form since the last OMB approval.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

Congress enacted the Labor-Management Reporting and Disclosure Act (LMRDA), 29 U.S.C. 401 et seq., to provide for the disclosure of information on the financial transactions and administrative practices of labor organizations. The statute also provides, under certain circumstances, for reporting by labor organization officers and employees, employers, labor relations consultants, and surety companies. In addition, the statute requires: (a) the maintenance and retention of supporting records for five years after the required reports are filed, and (b) the preservation for one year of records of elections of union officers. Section 208 of the Act authorizes the Secretary to issue rules and regulations prescribing the form of the required reports. The reporting provisions were devised to implement a basic tenet of the LMRDA: the guarantee of democratic procedures and safeguards within labor organizations that are designed to protect the basic rights of union members. The implementing regulations specifically incorporate by reference the LMRDA reporting and record retention requirements of labor organization information, annual financial, and trusteeship reports, as well as the requirement for the preservation of election records. Information supplied on the reports may be utilized by union members to help self-govern their unions, by the general public, and as research material for both outside researchers and within the Department of Labor. The information is also used to assist DOL and other government agencies in detecting
