This Notice Also Lists the Following Information

Title of Proposal: Public Housing Homeownership Program.

OMB Approval Number: 2577-0233.

Form Numbers: None.

Description of the Need for the Information and its Proposed use:

Under the Public Housing Homeownership Program, Public Housing Agencies (PHAs) make available public housing dwelling units; public housing projects, and other housing projects available for purchase by low-income families for use as principal residences by such families. Families who are interested in purchasing a unit must submit applications to the PHA or purchase and resale entities (PREs). A PRE must prepare and submit to the PHA and HUD a homeownership program before the PRE may purchase any public housing units or projects. The PRE must demonstrate legal and practical capability to carry out the program, provide a written agreement that specifies the respective rights and obligations of the PHA and the PRE. The PHA must develop a homeownership program and obtain HUD approval before it can be implemented, provide supporting documentation and additional supporting documentation for acquisition of nonpublic housing for homeownership. PHA applications can be submitted electronically via the Internet. PHAs will be required to maintain report annually on the public homeownership program.

Respondents: Local and State Governments; individuals and households.

Frequency of Submission: Annually and on occasion.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Abstract

These information collections are necessary to assess the need for tribally controlled community college programs as required by 25 CFR part 41 and Public Law 95-471. A 60-day request for public comments on this information collection was published in the Federal Register on Wednesday, August 28, 2002 (67 FR 55271). No comments were received. Copies of the collection of information may be obtained by contacting the Bureau's clearance officer at 202-208-2574.

II. Request for Comments

Comments are invited on: (a) Whether the collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility; (b) the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden (hours and cost) of the collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used; (c) ways to enhance the quality, utility and clarity of the information to be collected; and (d) ways to minimize the burden of the collection of the information on the respondents, including through the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology.

If you wish your name or address withheld from public review of comments, you must state this prominently at the beginning of your comments. We will honor your request as allowed by law.

The Office of Management and Budget (OMB) has up to 60 days to approve or disapprove the information collection but may respond after 30 days; therefore, comments submitted in response to this notice should be submitted to OMB within 30 days in
