The terms of the MOU governing the U.S.-Canada Data Exchange prohibit use of the data for any nonstatistical purpose. The import data obtained by the Census Bureau are collected under the authority of the CBP and are kept confidential by the Census Bureau, as required by law, unless disclosure is authorized by the CBP. Parties to U.S. import or export transactions that believe the published statistics disclose their confidential business information may contact the Chief, Foreign Trade Division, U.S. Census Bureau, Washington, DC 20233, 301-763-2255 to request that measures be taken to protect their information.

Access to the databases covered by this notice reside on servers/hardware reflected in the security plans and system documentation maintained by the IT Directorate. All software running on the servers is Census Bureau approved and further resides in environments that are certified and accredited. In addition to periodic virus scans, the systems are subjected to security reviews and audits. Access to the databases covered by this notice is controlled through the use of documented processes requiring the use of usernames and passwords to ensure that system users may only access the information they are authorized to see. Usernames and passwords comply with Census Bureau IT Security Policy, which includes standards for password complexity, how often they must be changed, etc. In the AES and the AESDirect, access is further limited by user roles, which restrict users' access to the information required to fulfill their responsibilities. Access to all databases covered by this notice is further restricted through use of access control lists.

RETENTION AND DISPOSAL:

Forms from which transaction level data are keyed are retained for three years. Consistent with 15 CFR part 30, the export transaction level records will be available to USPPs and their agents, and authorized U.S. Federal agencies for five years unless there is a legal requirement established through a court order. In which case, the records will be retained until that order is no longer in effect. Both import and export transaction level records will be available internally indefinitely, with records archived within the Census Bureau when direct access is no longer needed. Electronic summary files are kept for 20 years or disposed of sooner if deemed no longer needed.

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration

RIN 0648-XP79

Taking Marine Mammals Incidental to Specified Activities; Offshore Exploratory Drilling in the Beaufort Sea off Alaska

AGENCY: National Marine Fisheries Service (NMFS), National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA), Commerce.

ACTION: Notice; withdrawal of an incidental take authorization application.

SUMMARY: Notice is hereby given that Shell Offshore, Inc. (Shell) has withdrawn its application for an Incidental Harassment Authorization (IHA). The following action is related to a proposed IHA to Shell for the take of small numbers of marine mammals, by Level B harassment, incidental to conducting open-water offshore exploratory drilling on outer continental shelf (OCS) oil lease blocks in the Beaufort Sea off Alaska during the 2008/2009 open-water season.

ADDRESSES: The documents and the application related to this action are available by writing to P. Michael Payne, Chief, Permits, Conservation, and Education Division, Office of Protected Resources, National Marine Fisheries Service, 1315 East-West Highway, Silver Spring, MD 20910-3225, or by telephoning the contact listed here.

A copy of the application containing a list of the references used in this document may be obtained by writing to the address specified above, telephoning the contact listed below (see FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT), or online at: <http://www.nmfs.noaa.gov/pr/permits/incidental.htm>. Documents cited in this notice may be viewed, by appointment, during regular business hours, at the aforementioned address.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Candace Nachman or Ken Hollingshead, NMFS, 301-713-2289.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On February 24, 2008, NMFS received a revision to Shell's October 19, 2007, application requesting an IHA. The requested IHA was for an authorization to take, by Level B harassment, small numbers of several species of marine mammals incidental to conducting open-water offshore exploratory drilling on OCS oil lease blocks in the Beaufort Sea off Alaska during the 2008/2009 open-water season. On May 13, 2009, Shell informed NMFS that they would no longer be conducting exploratory drilling in the 2008/2009 season and requested the withdrawal of their IHA application. During the time since submitting its January 2007 Beaufort Sea OCS Lease Exploration Plan for 2007–2009 to the Minerals Management Service, Shell's priority exploration drilling locations for its Beaufort Sea leases have changed.

Dated: June 10, 2009.
