

- Evaluate the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;
- Evaluate whether and, if so, how the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected can be enhanced; and
- Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submission of responses.

Overview of This Information Collection

1. Type of Information Collection

(check justification or form 83):
Revision of a Currently Approved Collection.

2. The Title of the Form/Collection:
Records of Acquisition and Disposition, Collectors of Firearms.

3. The agency form number, if any, and the applicable component of the Department sponsoring the collection:
Form number (if applicable): None.

Component: Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives, U.S. Department of Justice.

4. Affected public who will be asked or required to respond, as well as a brief abstract:

Primary: Business or other for-profit.

Other (if applicable): Individuals or households.

Abstract: The recordkeeping requirement for this collection allows Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives personnel to inquire about firearms acquisition and disposition (A&D) records, during the course of criminal investigations or government compliance inspections.

5. An estimate of the total number of respondents and the amount of time estimated for an average respondent to respond: An estimated 114,001 respondents will prepare records for this collection once annually, and it will take each respondent approximately 3.05 hours to complete their responses.

6. An estimate of the total public burden (in hours) associated with the collection: The estimated annual public burden associated with this collection is 347,703 hours, which is equal to 114,001 (total respondents) * 1 (# of response per respondent) * 3.05 hours (the total time taken to prepare each response).

7. An Explanation of the Change in Estimates: The adjustment associated with this collection includes an increase in the totals respondents and responses by 62,025, due to the addition of Type 01/02 firearms dealers and Type 03 firearms collectors. Consequently, the total burden hours have also increased by 189,176 since the last renewal in 2020.

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

Notice of Lodging of Proposed Consent Decree Under the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act of 1980, as Amended ("CERCLA")

On March 25, 2022, the Department of Justice lodged a proposed consent decree with the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan in the lawsuit entitled United States v. Acemco Incorporated, et al., Civil Action No. 22-10640.

The United States filed a complaint under CERCLA for recovery of its costs spent at the Dearborn Refining Superfund Site in Dearborn, Michigan. The complaint alleges that the 14 named defendants sent waste containing hazardous substances to the Site. Each of the named defendants signed the proposed consent decree. Under the agreement, the named defendants would pay $880,000 for the United States' past costs at the Site and 50% of the United States' future costs, as defined in the consent decree, at the Site. In return, the United States agrees not sue the named defendants to recover past or future response costs under CERCLA Section 107.

The publication of this notice opens a period for public comment on the consent decree. Comments should be addressed to the Assistant Attorney General, Environment and Natural Resources Division, and should refer to United States v. Acemco Incorporated, et al., D.J. Ref. No. 90-7-1-704/8. All comments must be submitted no later than thirty (30) days after the publication date of this notice. Comments may be submitted either by email or by mail:

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

Notice of Lodging of Proposed Consent Judgment Under the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act

On March 24, 2022, the Department of Justice lodged a proposed consent judgment with the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York in the lawsuit entitled United States of America v. Genesis Petroleum, Inc., et al., Civil Action No. 19-cv-3340.

The United States, on behalf of the Environmental Protection Agency ("EPA"), filed the complaint in this Resource Conservation and Recovery Act ("RCRA") case on June 5, 2019. The Complaint alleges that Genesis Petroleum, Inc., Technic Management, Inc., Gulden Inc., 2664 RT 112 Realty Corp., 607 Station Road Realty Inc., 1000 Motor Parkway Central Islip LLC, 616 Broadway LLC, Freeport Realty LLC, 199 E Sunrise Highway Realty Corp., 465 Nassau Road Realty Corp., Camlica, Inc., Kucukbey Corp., North Country Road Realty LLC, Elizabeth NJPO LLC, Elizabeth NJPG LLC, Perth Amboy NJPO LLC, Perth Amboy NJPG LLC, Newark NJPO LLC, Newark NJPG LLC, North Bergen NJPO LLC, and North Bergen NJPG LLC (collectively, “Defendants”) are civilly liable for violations of regulations promulgated under RCRA Subchapter IX governing underground storage tanks. The complaint alleges that Defendants failed to comply with RCRA regulations as administered by the EPA for underground storage tanks at 13 facilities owned and/or operated by Defendants in New York and New Jersey.

The alleged violations include the failure to: Install and use spill prevention equipment; use overflow prevention equipment; provide release detection for USTs; provide release detection for pressurized piping; test automatic line leak detectors; report suspected releases; perform release detection for USTs that were temporarily closed but still contained more than three feet of petroleum products; maintain and timely provide records of release detection monitoring; timely respond to requests for information issued by EPA and maintain financial responsibility and evidence of financial responsibility.

Under the Proposed Consent Judgment, Defendants shall ensure and maintain compliance with RCRA UST regulations at 29 facilities that they own and/or operate in New York and New Jersey. Defendants will pay a civil penalty of $250,000. The Proposed Consent Judgment will resolve all RCRA claims alleged in this action by the United States against Defendants.

The publication of this notice opens a period for public comment on the Proposed Consent Judgment should be addressed to the Assistant Attorney General, Environment and Natural Resources Division, Environmental Enforcement Section, and should refer to *United States v. BILLING CODE 4410–15–P

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

Agency Information Collection Activities; Submission for OMB Review; Comment Request; Affordable Care Act Internal Claims and Appeals and External Review Procedures for ERISA Plans

ACTION: Notice of availability; request for comments.

SUMMARY: The Department of Labor (DOL) is submitting this Employee Benefits Security Administration (EBSA)-sponsored information collection request (ICR) to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) for review and approval in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (PRA). Public comments on the ICR are invited.

DATES: The OMB will consider all written comments that the agency receives on or before May 2, 2022.

ADDRESSES: Written comments and recommendations for the proposed information collection should be sent within 30 days of publication of this notice to www.reginfo.gov/public/do/PRAMain. Find this particular information collection by selecting “Currently under 30-day Review—Open for Public Comments” or by using the search function.

Comments are invited on: (1) Whether the collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the Department, including whether the information will have practical utility; (2) if the information will be processed and used in a timely manner; (3) the accuracy of the agency’s estimates of the burden and cost of the collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used; (4) ways to enhance the quality, utility and clarity of the information collection; and (5) ways to minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Mara Blumenthal by telephone at 202–693–8538, or by email at DOL_PRA_PUBLIC@dol.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Under the Affordable Care Act, Congress added Public Health Service Act (the PHS Act) section 2719, which provides rules relating to internal claims and appeals and external review processes. The Departments of Labor (DOL), Health and Human Services (HHS), and the Treasury (collectively, the Departments) issued final implementing regulations on November 18, 2015 (80 FR 72191). With respect to internal claims and appeals processes for group health coverage, PHS Act section 2719 and paragraph (b)(2)(i) of the interim final regulations provide that group health plans and health insurance issuers offering group health insurance coverage must comply with the internal claims and appeals processes set forth in 29 CFR 2560.503–1 (the DOL claims procedure regulation) and update such processes in accordance with standards established by the Secretary of Labor in paragraph (b)(2)(ii) of the regulations. The No Surprises Act of 2020 extended the balance billing protections related to external reviews to grandfathered plans. This collection of information request includes the information collection and third-party notice and disclosure requirements that a plan must satisfy under the statutes and regulations. For additional substantive information about this ICR, see the related notice published in the Federal Register on November 9, 2021 (86 FR 62206).

This information collection is subject to the PRA. A Federal agency generally cannot conduct or sponsor a collection of information, and the public is generally not required to respond to an information collection, unless the OMB approves it and displays a currently valid OMB Control Number. In addition, notwithstanding any other provisions of law, no person shall generally be subject to penalty for failing to comply with a collection of information that does not display a valid OMB Control Number. See 5 CFR 1320.5(a) and 1320.6.

DOL seeks PRA authorization for this information collection for three (3) years. OMB authorization for an ICR cannot be for more than three (3) years without renewal. The DOL notes that information collection requirements submitted to the OMB for existing ICRs receive a month-to-month extension while they undergo review.

Agency: DOL–EBSA.
