Background

On August 30, 2010, the President issued Executive Order 13551 "Blocking Property of Certain Persons With Respect to North Korea" (the "Order") pursuant to, inter alia, the International Emergency Economic Powers Act (50 U.S.C. 1701-06). In the Order, the President expanded the scope of the national emergency declared in Executive Order 13466 of June 26, 2008, and took additional steps with respect to the situation in North Korea.

Section 1 of the Order blocks, with certain exceptions, all property and interests in property that are in the United States, that come within the United States, or that are or come within the possession or control of any United States person, of persons listed in the Annex to the Order and of persons determined by the Secretary of the Treasury, in consultation with the Secretary of State, to satisfy certain criteria set forth in the Order.

The Annex to the Order lists one individual and three entities whose property and interests in property are blocked pursuant to the Order. OFAC is publishing additional identifying information associated with that individual and those entities.
