

Continuation of the Orders

As a result of the determinations by Commerce and the ITC that revocation of the Orders would likely lead to continuation or recurrence of dumping and material injury to an industry in the United States, pursuant to section 751(d)(2) of the Act, Commerce hereby orders the continuation of the Orders. U.S. Customs and Border Protection will continue to collect AD cash deposits at the rates in effect at the time of entry for all imports of subject merchandise.

The effective date of the continuation of the Orders will be August 2, 2023.<sup>5</sup> Pursuant to section 751(c)(2) of the Act, Commerce intends to initiate the next five-year (sunset) reviews of the Orders not later than 30 days prior to the fifth anniversary of the date of the last determination by the Commission.

Administrative Protective Order (APO)

This notice also serves as a final reminder to parties subject to an APO of their responsibility concerning the return or destruction or conversion to judicial protective order of proprietary information disclosed under APO in accordance with 19 CFR 351.305(a)(3), which continues to govern business proprietary information in this segment of the proceeding. Timely written notification of the return or destruction of APO materials, or conversion to judicial protective order, is hereby requested. Failure to comply with the regulations and terms of an APO is a violation which is subject to sanction.

Notification to Interested Parties

These five-year (sunset) reviews and this notice are in accordance with sections 751(c) and 751(d)(2) of the Act and published in accordance with section 777(i) of the Act, and 19 CFR 351.218(f)(4).

Certain Cut-to-Length Carbon Steel Plate From the Russian Federation: Termination of the Suspension Agreement and Issuance of Antidumping Duty Order

AGENCY: Enforcement and Compliance, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

SUMMARY: The U.S. Department of Commerce (Commerce) is terminating the Agreement Suspending the Antidumping Duty Investigation on Certain Cut-to-Length Carbon Steel Plate (CTL plate) from the Russian Federation (Russia) (2003 Agreement). Accordingly, Commerce is issuing an antidumping duty (AD) order on CTL plate from Russia. Commerce is directing the suspension of liquidation and collection of cash deposits to begin on the date of publication of this notice.

DATES: Applicable August 14, 2023.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Sally C. Gannon or David Cordell, Enforcement and Compliance, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 1401 Constitution Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20230; telephone: (202) 482–0162 or (202) 482–0408, respectively.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On December 3, 1996, Commerce initiated an AD investigation under section 732 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (the Act) on CTL plate from Russia.<sup>1</sup> Commerce suspended the AD investigation on October 24, 1997, on the basis of an agreement between Commerce and the Government of Russia (GOR) under section 734(l) of the Act to restrict the volume of direct and indirect exports to the United States of CTL plate from all Russian producers/exporters and to revise its prices to eliminate completely sales of this merchandise to the United States at less than fair value.<sup>2</sup> In the Final Determination, Commerce calculated weighted-average dumping margins of 53.81 percent for Joint Stock Company Severstal (Severstal) and 185.00 percent for the “Russia-wide” entity.<sup>3</sup> In December 1997, the U.S. International Trade Commission (ITC) determined that an industry in the United States was threatened with material injury by reason of imports of CTL plate from China, Russia, South Africa, and Ukraine.<sup>4</sup>

On June 6, 2002, based on the evidence of Russian economic reforms to that date, Commerce revoked Russia’s status as a non-market economy (NME) country under section 771(18)(B) of the Act, effective on April 1, 2002.<sup>5</sup> On December 20, 2002, Commerce and three Russian CTL plate producers, Severstal, JSC Magnitogorsk Iron and Steel Works, and JSC NOSTA (OKIW) Integrated Iron-Steel Works, signed a revised suspension agreement pursuant to section 734(b) of the Act. The effective date of the 2003 Agreement was January 23, 2003.<sup>6</sup>

On November 9, 2022, Commerce revoked Russia’s market-economy status in the AD investigation into Emulsion Styrene-Butadiene Rubber from the Russian Federation.<sup>7</sup> On March 30, 2023, domestic producers Nucor Corporation, Cleveland-Cliffs Inc., and SSAB Enterprises LLC (collectively, domestic parties) filed a request to terminate the 2003 Agreement.<sup>8</sup> They argue that the 2003 Agreement is no longer in the public interest primarily because in November 2022 Commerce reclassified Russia as an NME country.

We asked interested parties to comment on the request in a Federal Register notice published on April 24, 2023.<sup>9</sup> We received comments from the domestic parties and the GOR. We received rebuttal comments from the domestic parties. These comments are summarized and addressed in the accompanying Issues and Decision Memorandum (IDM). For the reasons addressed in the IDM, Commerce is terminating the 2003 Agreement and instituting an AD order.

Antidumping Duty Order

As noted above, the underlying investigation in this proceeding was continued pursuant to section 734(g) of the Act. Commerce made a final affirmative AD determination, and the ITC found material injury.<sup>10</sup> Therefore, in light of the termination of the 2003 Agreement and the final affirmative determinations issued by Commerce and ITC, in accordance with section 735(c)(2) of the Act, Commerce is issuing an AD order and will instruct U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) to suspend liquidation of entries of subject merchandise, entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption on after the date of publication of this Notice. These suspension-of-liquidation instructions will remain in effect until further notice.

In accordance with section 736(a)(1) of the Act, Commerce is directing CBP to assess, upon further instruction by Commerce, antidumping duties equal to the amount by which the normal value of the merchandise exceeds the export price (or constructed export price) of the merchandise, for all entries of CTL plate from Russia subject to the scope of this order in the appendix below.

Commerce also shall instruct CBP to require a cash deposit for each entry equal to the AD estimated weighted-average margin rates found in Commerce's Final Determination, as listed below. Accordingly, for entries of subject merchandise entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption on or after the date of publication of this Federal Register notice, CBP will require, at the same time as importers would normally deposit estimated duties on the subject merchandise, a cash deposit equal to the estimated weighted-average dumping margins listed below. Therefore, effective on the date of publication of this notice, CBP shall require a cash deposit equal to the cash deposit rates shown below. These suspension of liquidation and cash deposit instructions will remain in effect until further notice.

The ad valorem rates for this AD order are as follows:

Producer/exporter	Estimated weighted-average dumping margin (percent)
Joint Stock Company Severstal .....	53.81
Russia-wide Rate .....	185.00

The Russia-Wide Rate

A Russia-wide rate was assigned to certain CTL plate based on the average margin contained in the petition. The Russia-wide rate applies to all entries of subject merchandise except for entries from exporters/factories that are identified individually above.

Notification to Interested Parties

This notice constitutes the AD order with respect to CTL plate from Russia pursuant to section 736(a) of the Act. Interested parties can find a list of AD orders currently in effect at <https://enforcement.trade.gov/stats/iastats1.html>. This order is issued and published in accordance with section 736(a) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.211(b).

Dated: August 8, 2023.
