Hand Trucks and Certain Parts Thereof From The People's Republic of China: Notice of Decision of the Court of International Trade Not in Harmony

AGENCY: Import Administration, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

SUMMARY: On October 22, 2008, the United States Court of International Trade ("CIT" or "Court") sustained the final remand determination made by the Department of Commerce ("the Department") pursuant to the Court's remand of the scope ruling of the antidumping duty order on hand trucks from the People's Republic of China ("PRC"). See Gleason Industrial Products, Inc. v. United States, Ct. No. 06-00089, Slip Op. 08-115 (Ct. Int'l Trade October 22, 2008) ("Gleason III"). This case arises out of the Department's antidumping duty order on hand trucks and certain parts thereof from the People's Republic of China. The final judgment in this case was not in harmony with the Department's February 2006 final scope ruling.

DATES: Effective Date: November 1, 2008.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Laurel LaCivita, AD/CVD Operations, Office 8, Import Administration, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 14th Street and Constitution Avenue, NW., Washington DC 20230; telephone (202) 482-4243.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In December 2004, the Department placed an antidumping duty order on certain varieties of hand trucks manufactured in the People's Republic of China. See Antidumping Duty Order on Hand Trucks and Certain Parts Thereof from the People's Republic of China, 69 FR 70122 (December 2, 2004) ("Order"). In December 2005, Central Purchasing, LLC ("Central Purchasing"), requested the Department to determine whether two of the welding carts that it imported, models 93851 and 43615, were within the scope of the order. See Central Purchasing's Scope Ruling Request (December 19, 2005). The Petitioners, Gleason Industrial Products, Inc. and Precision Products, Inc. ("Gleason"), responded that both models of Central Purchasing's carts should be included within the scope of the Order. See Gleason's Response to Central Purchasing's Scope Request (January 4, 2006).

In an unpublished ruling, the Department found that both models of Central Purchasing's carts were outside the scope of the antidumping duty order. See Memorandum from Hilary E. Sadler, Case Analyst, though Wendy J. Frankel, Office Director, to Stephen J. Claeys, Acting Deputy Assistant Secretary for AD/CVD Operations: "Final Scope Ruling for Central Purchasing, LLC's Two Models of Welding Carts," dated February 15, 2006 ("Final Scope Ruling").

On March 17, 2006, Gleason filed its summons with the Court alleging that the Final Scope Ruling was not supported by substantial evidence or otherwise in accordance with law. The Department requested a voluntary remand in November 2006 to reconsider its original determination, which the trial court granted. See Gleason Indus.
