Endangered and Threatened Wildlife and Plants; Draft Habitat Conservation Plan and Draft Categorical Exclusion for the California Red-Legged Frog and the Southwestern Pond Turtle; Tajiguas Landfill and ReSource Center Project, Santa Barbara County, California

AGENCY: Fish and Wildlife Service, Interior.

ACTION: Notice of availability; request for comments; correction.

SUMMARY: On April 8, 2022, we, the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, published a notice announcing the availability for public comment of a draft habitat conservation plan (HCP) and draft categorical exclusion (CatEx) for activities associated with an application for an incidental take permit. Our notice inadvertently did not give the correct web address for obtaining documents for review. In addition, it published with out-of-date telecommunications relay services information. In this notice, we correct those errors.

DATES: Written comments should be received on or before May 9, 2022.

ADDRESSES:

Obtaining Documents: You may download copies of the draft HCP and draft CatEx at <https://www.fws.gov/media/us-fish-and-wildlife-service-seeks-public-comment-draft-habitat-conservation-plan-and-draft>, or you may request copies by phone at 805-677-3307 or by U.S. mail (below).

Submitting Written Comments: Please send us your written comments using one of the following methods:

- U.S. mail: Stephen P. Henry, Field Supervisor, Ventura Fish and Wildlife Office, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, 2493 Portola Road, Suite B, Ventura, CA 93003.
- Email: kirby_bartlett@fws.gov.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Kirby Bartlett, Fish and Wildlife Biologist, by email at kirby_bartlett@fws.gov or via phone at 805-677-3307. Individuals in the United States who are deaf, deafblind, hard of hearing, or have a speech disability may dial 711 (TTY, TDD, or TeleBraille) to access telecommunications relay services. Individuals outside the United States should use the relay services offered within their country to make international calls to the point-of-contact in the United States.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On April 8, 2022, we, the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, published a notice announcing the availability for public comment of a draft habitat conservation plan and draft categorical exclusion for activities associated with an application for an incidental take permit (87 FR 20881). Our notice inadvertently did not give the correct web address for obtaining documents in the ADDRESSES section. In addition, it published with out-of-date telecommunications relay services information in the FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT section. Please see corrected information above.

Madonna Baucum,

Regulations and Policy Chief, Policy and Regulations Branch, Division of Policy, Economics, Risk Management, and Analytics, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Central California RAC advises the Secretary of the Interior, through the BLM, on a variety of planning and management issues associated with BLM-managed public lands in central California. Topics for these meetings are as follows:

June 22, 2022: The RAC will hear about the Recreation Area Management Plan anticipated to be developed for the Keysville Special Recreation Management Area and determine how it will participate in the process. The RAC will also be briefed on the impacts on BLM-managed public lands due to increased outdoor recreation during the pandemic, and hear reports from the district and field offices, including a wildland fire pre-season forecast.

Sept. 14, 2022: The RAC will be briefed on business plans being developed with potential fee increases at BLM-managed recreation sites within the jurisdictions of the Mother Lode and Central Coast field offices, which would require recommendations from the RAC. The RAC will also hear reports from the district and field offices.

November 2 and 3, 2022: On November 2, the RAC will discuss implementation of the Alabama Hills Management Plan. The RAC will also learn about the Casa Diablo IV Geothermal Development Project, hear reports from the district and field offices, including a post-season wildland fire assessment, and schedule additional meeting dates for 2023. On November 3, the RAC will tour the Alabama Hills National Scenic Area to see the improvements made under the Management Plan, including new signs indicating areas that are now day use only; added portable restrooms in two locations; and designated campsites in some areas.

February 22 and 23, 2023: On February 22, the RAC will be briefed on the progress of the South Cow Mountain OHV Management Area Implementation Plan and determine how it will participate in the planning process. The RAC will hear an update on the BLM Trails and Travel Management Plan for the Berryessa Snow Mountain National Monument and hear reports from the district and field offices. On February 23, 2023, the RAC will tour the South Cow Mountain OHV Management Area to view conditions and opportunities for improving off-highway vehicle facilities at the South Cow Mountain OHV Management Area.

All meetings are open to the public. Each RAC meeting has time allocated for public comments. Depending on the number of persons wishing to speak and the time available, the amount of time for oral comments may be limited. Written public comments may be sent to the BLM Central California District Office listed in the ADDRESSES section of this notice. All comments received at least 1 week in advance of the meeting will be provided to the RAC.

Public Disclosure of Comments: Before including your address, phone number, email address, or other personal identifying information in your comment, you should be aware that your entire comment—including your personal identifying information—may be made publicly available at any time. While you can ask us in your comment to withhold your personal identifying information from public review, we cannot guarantee that we will be able to do so.

Members of the public are welcome on field tours but must provide their own transportation and meals. Individuals who plan to attend and need special assistance, such as sign language interpretation and other reasonable accommodations, should contact the BLM (see FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT) at least 2 weeks in advance of the field tours. In-person meetings and the field tours will follow current Centers for Disease Control COVID-19 guidance regarding social distancing and wearing of masks.

Detailed minutes for the RAC meetings will be maintained in the BLM Central California District Office. Minutes will also be posted to the BLM California RAC web page at <https://go.usa.gov/xH9ya>.
