The John D. Dingell, Jr. Conservation, Management and Recreation Act (Act) (Pub. L. 116–9) was enacted on March 12, 2019. Title VII Section 7001 of the Act directs relevant Secretaries to take actions concerning invasive species; this includes direction to each Secretary concerned to develop a strategic plan for the implementation of the invasive species program to achieve, to the maximum extent practicable, a substantive annual net reduction of invasive species populations or infested acreage on land or water managed by the Secretary concerned. The Act directed that the Plan be developed in coordination with affected eligible States, political subdivisions of eligible States, in consultation with Federally recognized Indian tribes and in accordance with the priorities of Governors of eligible States. The Act is available at: <https://www.congress.gov/116/bills/s47/BILLS-116s47enr.pdf>.

To inform the Plan’s development, Interior held a series of teleconference listening sessions in November 2019 with Federally recognized Indian tribes, State, county and territorial governments, Alaska Native Corporations and the Native Hawaiian Community. The purpose of the sessions was for Interior to gain perspectives on topics including, but not limited to, priority invasive species of greatest concern to address to protect valued natural, economic and cultural resources; opportunities to address invasive species at a meaningful scale to achieve effective outcomes; interjurisdictional efforts needed to prevent, detect, eradicate and control invasive species; opportunities to fulfill Trust responsibilities; and specific areas of interest to emphasize in the Plan. Written comments were also accepted. Input received at the onset of the Plan’s development informed the Plan’s mission, vision, goals, objectives and strategies.

The Plan is intended to: Comply with the Act’s mandate for Interior to develop an Interior-wide Plan; be broad enough to reflect Interior’s depth and breadth of work underway; coordinate with and build upon existing efforts; complement existing plans, e.g., bureau and interagency plans, and reporting efforts; be implemented in collaboration with States, Tribes, territories, local governments, other Federal agencies and others, as appropriate, and be implemented within existing authorities and available resources.

The scope of the Plan includes goals, objectives, strategies and metrics; ongoing work and opportunities to focus on emerging priorities; actions both on Interior-managed lands and waters and on lands and waters managed by others but for which Interior has a mandate; a spectrum of strategies, invasive species and scales of implementation; and a five-year timeline, beginning in Fiscal Year 2021, to be reviewed every five years.

Consultation and teleconference listening sessions on the draft Plan, together with any written comments received, will aid Interior in refining the Plan.

An overview of the Plan and process to develop it will be provided during the teleconference sessions. The majority of the time will be made available for comment. Input to gain on the draft Plan includes but is not limited to the following topics:

- Are the mission, vision, goals, objectives and strategies clear as written, and if not, what clarifications should be made?
- Do the goals, objectives and strategies build in sufficient flexibility for implementation to meet the needs of ongoing and emerging efforts, and if not, how should they be adjusted?
- Do the goals, objectives and strategies emphasize the importance of collaboration to advance mutual priorities of Tribal, State, local and territorial governments and partners, and if not, how should they be adjusted?
- Based on the objectives, what metrics would be most useful to track progress against the objectives?
- Are there any major omissions in the draft that should be addressed, and if so, what are they?

INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

[Investigation Nos. 701–TA–650–651
(Preliminary)]

Phosphate Fertilizers From Morocco and Russia

Determinations

On the basis of the record <sup>1</sup> developed in the subject investigations, the United States International Trade Commission (“Commission”) determines, pursuant to the Tariff Act of 1930 (“the Act”), that there is a reasonable indication that an industry in the United States is materially injured by reason of imports of phosphate fertilizers from Morocco and Russia, provided for in 3103.11.00; 3103.19.00; 3103.90.00; 3105.10.00; 3105.20.00; 3105.30.00; 3105.40.00; 3105.40.00; 3105.51.00; 3105.59.00; 3105.60.00; and 3105.90.00 of the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States, that are alleged to be subsidized by the governments of Morocco and Russia.<sup>2</sup>

Commencement of Final Phase Investigations

Pursuant to section 207.18 of the Commission’s rules, the Commission also gives notice of the commencement of the final phase of its investigations. The Commission will issue a final phase notice of scheduling, which will be published in the Federal Register as provided in § 207.21 of the Commission’s rules, upon notice from the U.S. Department of Commerce (“Commerce”) of affirmative preliminary determinations in the investigations under § 703(b) of the Act, or, if the preliminary determinations are negative, upon notice of affirmative final determinations in those investigations under § 705(a) of the Act. Parties that filed entries of appearance in the preliminary phase of the investigations need not enter a separate appearance for the final phase of the investigations. Industrial users, and, if the merchandise under investigation is sold at the retail level, representative consumer organizations have the right to appear as parties in Commission countervailing duty investigations. The Secretary will prepare a public service list containing the names and addresses of all persons, or their representatives, who are parties to the investigations.

Background

On June 26, 2020, The Mosaic Company, Plymouth, Minnesota filed petitions with the Commission and Commerce, alleging that an industry in the United States is materially injured or threatened with material injury by reason of subsidized imports of phosphate fertilizers from Morocco and Russia. Accordingly, effective June 26, 2020, the Commission instituted countervailing duty investigation Nos. 701–TA–650–651 (Preliminary).

Notice of the institution of the Commission’s investigations and of a public conference through written submission to be held in connection therewith was given by posting copies of the notice in the Office of the Secretary, U.S. International Trade Commission, Washington, DC, and by publishing the notice in the Federal Register of July 6, 2020 (85 FR 40319). In light of the restrictions on access to the Commission building due to the COVID–19 pandemic, the Commission conducted its conference through written questions, submissions of opening remarks and written testimony, written responses to questions, and postconference briefs. All persons who requested the opportunity were permitted to participate.

The Commission made these determinations pursuant to § 703(a) of the Act (19 U.S.C. 1671b(a)). It completed and filed its determinations in these investigations on August 17, 2020. The views of the Commission are contained in USITC Publication 5105 (August 2020), entitled Phosphate Fertilizers from Morocco and Russia:

Investigation Nos. 701–TA–650–651 (Preliminary).

By order of the Commission.

Issued: August 10, 2020.

INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

[Investigation Nos. 731–TA–986–987 (Third Review)]

Ferrovanadium From China and South Africa; Determination

On the basis of the record <sup>1</sup> developed in the subject five-year reviews, the United States International Trade Commission (“Commission”) determines, pursuant to the Tariff Act of 1930 (“the Act”), that revocation of the antidumping duty orders on ferrovanadium from China and South Africa would be likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of material injury to an industry in the United States within a reasonably foreseeable time.

Background

The Commission instituted these reviews on January 2, 2020 (85 FR 122) and determined on April 6, 2020 that it would conduct expedited reviews (85 FR 43258, July 16, 2020).

The Commission made these determinations pursuant to section 751(c) of the Act (19 U.S.C. 1675(c)). It completed and filed its determinations in these reviews on August 7, 2020. The views of the Commission are contained in USITC Publication 5099 (August 2020), entitled Ferrovanadium from China and South Africa: Investigation Nos. 731–TA–986–987 (Third Review).

By order of the Commission.

Issued: August 7, 2020.
