Abstract of Information Available

Based on the information available, human remains representing at least two individuals have been reasonably identified. Repatriations associated with the intended exhumation of human remains at the Igliqtisuiǵvigruaq site (XBM–00047) occurred in 2014. An additional 11 fragments of human remains were identified in 2023 at the same site located along the Kobuk River in Kobuk Valley National Park, Northwest Arctic Borough, AK. The human remains in this notice are associated with human remains that were included in a Notice of Intended Disposition published in the Anchorage Daily News on August 6th and 13th, 2013; in the Arctic Sounder on August 15th, 2013 (pg 12); and in the Arctic Sounder on August 22nd, 2013 (pg 13). All of the human remains are stored at the Alaska Regional Curatorial Center (ARCC) at the NPS Regional Office in Anchorage, AK.

Determinations

KOVA has determined that:

- The human remains described in this notice represent the physical remains of two individuals of Native American ancestry.
- The Native Village of Kiana has priority for disposition of the human remains described in this notice.

Claims for Disposition

Written claims for disposition of the human remains in this notice must be sent to the appropriate official identified in this notice under ADDRESSES. If no claim for disposition is received by March 19, 2026, the human remains in this notice will become unclaimed human remains. Claims for disposition may be submitted by:

1. Any lineal descendant, Indian Tribe, or Native Hawaiian organization identified in this notice.
2. Any lineal descendant, Indian Tribe, or Native Hawaiian organization not identified in this notice who shows, by a preponderance of the evidence, that they have priority for disposition.
