

taken in response to these events, and the resulting effects, as applicable. Testifying stakeholders must appear at the hearing in person; there is no virtual option for presentations.

There may not be sufficient time for all interested stakeholders to present testimony, and the Commission will notify stakeholders selected to testify no later than February 2, 2024. To ensure a diversity of views and perspectives from vessel-operating common carriers and shippers, the Commission may also extend invitations to testify. The panels and stakeholders selected to testify will be announced at a later date on the Commission's web page at www.fmc.gov.

III. Written Testimony and Comment

How do I submit written testimony or a comment for the hearing?

Any person wishing to submit written testimony or a comment for the hearing must submit their testimony or comment to the Commission by email at secretary@fmc.gov and received no later than 5 p.m. EST on January 31, 2024.

What will the Commission do with my written testimony or comment?

All written testimony and comments received will be posted without change, including any personal information provided, at <https://www.regulations.gov>, and will be included in the record and made available to the public. Please do not include personally identifiable information (such as name, address, or other contact information) or confidential business information that you do not want publicly disclosed.

How do I submit confidential information?

The Commission will provide confidential treatment for identified confidential information to the extent allowed by law. If you would like to request confidential treatment of any written testimony or comment, you must submit the following, by email, to secretary@fmc.gov:

- A transmittal letter requesting confidential treatment that identifies the specific information in the written testimony or comment for which protection is sought and demonstrates that the information is a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information.

- A confidential copy of your written testimony or comment, consisting of the complete filing with a cover page marked "Confidential-Restricted," and the confidential material clearly marked on each page.

- A public version of your written testimony or comment with the confidential information excluded. The public version must state "Public Version—confidential materials excluded" on the cover page and on each affected page and must clearly indicate any information withheld.

How can I read written testimony and comments submitted by others?

You may read the written testimony and comments received by the Commission at www.regulations.gov under Docket No. FMC–2024–0003.
