SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: More than 20 million men, women, and children throughout the world are victims of severe forms of trafficking in persons, defined in section 103 of the Trafficking Victims Protection Act (TVPA) to include the recruitment, harboring, transportation, provision, or obtaining of a person for labor or services, through the use of force, fraud, or coercion, for the purpose of subjection to involuntary servitude, peonage, debt bondage, or slavery as well as sex trafficking. As the largest single purchaser of goods and services in the world, the Federal Government bears a responsibility to ensure that taxpayer dollars do not contribute to trafficking.

Both E.O. 13627, issued on September 25, 2012, and the ETGCA, which became law on January 2, 2013, create a stronger framework for agency prevention of trafficking by, among other things, (i) clarifying what constitutes trafficking or trafficking-related activities in the Federal supply chain, (ii) requiring contractors in
