Foreign-Trade Zones Board

[Order No. 2149]

Reorganization and Expansion of Foreign-Trade Zone 255 Under Alternative Site Framework; Washington County, Maryland

Pursuant to its authority under the Foreign-Trade Zones Act of June 18, 1934, as amended (19 U.S.C. 81a–81u), the Foreign-Trade Zones Board (the Board) adopts the following Order:

Whereas, the Foreign-Trade Zones (FTZ) Act provides for “. . . the establishment . . . of foreign-trade zones in ports of entry of the United States, to expedite and encourage foreign commerce, and for other purposes,” and authorizes the Board to grant to qualified corporations the privilege of establishing foreign-trade zones in or adjacent to U.S. Customs and Border Protection ports of entry;

Whereas, the Board adopted the alternative site framework (ASF) (15 CFR 400.2(c)) as an option for the establishment or reorganization of zones;

Whereas, the Board of County Commissioners of Washington County, grantee of Foreign-Trade Zone 255, submitted an application to the Board (FTZ Docket B–27–2023, docketed April 13, 2023) for authority to reorganize and expand under the ASF with a service area of Washington County, Maryland, adjacent to the Baltimore Customs and Border Protection port of entry, FTZ 255's existing Sites 1, 2, 4, 6 and 7 would be categorized as magnet sites, and the grantee proposes one initial subzone (Subzone 255A);

Whereas, notice inviting public comment was given in the Federal Register (88 FR 24161–24162, April 19, 2023) and the application has been processed pursuant to the FTZ Act and the Board's regulations; and,

Whereas, the Board adopts the findings and recommendations of the examiners' report, and finds that the requirements of the FTZ Act and the Board's regulations are satisfied;

Now, therefore, the Board hereby orders:

The application to reorganize and expand FTZ 255 under the ASF is approved, subject to the FTZ Act and the Board's regulations, including section 400.13, to the Board's standard 2,000-acre activation limit for the zone, to an ASF sunset provision for magnet sites that would terminate authority for Sites 1, 4, 6 and 7 if not activated within five years from the month of approval, and to an ASF sunset provision for subzones that would terminate authority for Subzone 255A if no foreign-status merchandise is admitted for a bona fide customs purpose within three years from the month of approval.

Dated: October 24, 2023.

Hydrofluorocarbon Blends From the People's Republic of China: Initiation of Circumvention Inquiry on the Antidumping Duty Order

AGENCY: Enforcement and Compliance, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

SUMMARY: In response to a request from the American HFC Coalition, a domestic interested party, the U.S. Department of Commerce (Commerce) is initiating a country-wide circumvention inquiry to determine whether U.S. imports from Mexico of R–410B, which are completed in Mexico using Chinese components and further processed in the United States, are circumventing the antidumping duty (AD) order on hydrofluorocarbon (HFC) blends from the People's Republic of China (China).

DATES: Applicable October 30, 2023.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Genevieve Coen or Jerry Xiao, AD/CVD Operations, Office II, Enforcement and Compliance, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 1401 Constitution Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20230; telephone: (202) 482–3251 or (202) 482–2273, respectively.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On September 22, 2023, pursuant to sections 781(a) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (the Act) and 19 CFR 351.226(c), the American HFC Coalition¹ filed a circumvention inquiry request alleging that HFC blends completed in Mexico from Chinese components and further processed in the United States are circumventing the AD order on HFC blends from Mexico² and, accordingly, should be included within the scope of the Order.³ On October 17, 2023, the American HFC Coalition responded to our supplemental questionnaire.⁴

Scope of the Order

The products subject to the Order are HFC blends. HFC blends covered by the scope of the Order are currently classified in the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States (HTSUS) at subheadings 3827.61.0000, 3827.63.0000, 3827.64.0000, 3827.65.0000, 3827.68.0000, 3827.69.0000. Although the HTSUS subheadings are provided for convenience and customs purposes, the written description of the scope is dispositive. For a full description of the scope the Order, see the attachment to the Initiation Checklist.⁵

Merchandise Subject to the Circumvention Inquiry

The circumvention inquiry covers R-410B from Mexico that is completed in Mexico using Chinese R-32 and R-125 and then subsequently exported to and further processed in the United States into an in-scope blend (i.e., R-410A).

Initiation of Circumvention Inquiry

Section 351.226(d) of Commerce's regulations states that if Commerce determines that a request for a circumvention inquiry satisfies the requirements of 19 CFR 351.226(c), then Commerce "will accept the request and initiate a circumvention inquiry." Section 351.226(c)(1) of Commerce's regulations, in turn, requires that each circumvention inquiry request allege "that the elements necessary for a circumvention determination under section 781 of the Act exist" and be "accompanied by information reasonably available to the interested party supporting these allegations." The American HFC Coalition alleged circumvention pursuant to section 781(a) of the Act (merchandise completed or assembled in the United States).

Section 781(a)(1) of the Act provides that Commerce may find circumvention of an order when merchandise of the same class or kind subject to the order is completed or assembled in the United States. In conducting a circumvention inquiry, under section 781(a)(1) of the Act, Commerce relies on the following criteria: (A) merchandise sold in the United States is of the same class or kind as any merchandise that is the subject of an AD or countervailing duty (CVD) order; (B) such merchandise sold in the United States is completed or assembled in the United States from parts or components produced in the foreign country with respect to which such order or finding applies; (C) the process of assembly or completion in the United States is minor or insignificant; and (D) the value of the parts or components referred to in subparagraph (B) is a significant portion of the total value of the merchandise.

In determining whether the process of assembly or completion in the United States is minor or insignificant under section 781(a)(1)(C) of the Act, section 781(a)(2) of the Act directs Commerce to consider: (A) the level of investment in the United States; (B) the level of research and development in the United States; (C) the nature of the production process in the United States; (D) the extent of production facilities in the United States; and (E) whether the value of the processing performed in the United States represents a small proportion of the value of the merchandise sold in the United States. However, no single factor, by itself, controls Commerce's determination of whether the process of assembly or completion in the United States is minor or insignificant.⁶ Accordingly, it is Commerce's practice to evaluate each of these five factors as they exist in the United States, and to reach an affirmative or negative circumvention determination based on the totality of the circumstances of the particular circumvention inquiry.⁷

In addition, section 781(a)(3) of the Act sets forth additional factors to consider in determining whether to include merchandise assembled or completed in the United States within the scope of an AD or CVD order. Specifically, Commerce shall take into account such factors as: (A) the pattern of trade, including sourcing patterns; (B) whether the manufacturer or exporter of the parts or components is affiliated with the person who assembles or completes the merchandise sold in the United States from the parts or components produced in the foreign country with respect to which the order applies; and (C) whether imports into the United States of the parts or components products in such foreign country have increased after the initiation of the investigation which resulted in the issuance of such order.

Analysis

Based on our analysis of the American HFC Coalition's circumvention request, Commerce determines that the American HFC Coalition has satisfied the criteria under 19 CFR 351.226(c) to warrant the initiation of a circumvention inquiry of the Order. For a full discussion of the basis for our decision to initiate this circumvention inquiry, see the Initiation Checklist. As explained in the Initiation Checklist, the information provided by domestic interested parties warrants initiating this circumvention inquiry on a country-wide basis. Commerce has taken this approach in prior circumvention inquiries, where the facts warranted initiation on a country-wide basis.⁸

⁶ See Statement of Administrative Action Accompanying the Uruguay Round Agreements Act, H.R. Doc. No. 103-316, Vol. 1 (1994), at 893.

Consistent with the approach in the prior circumvention inquiries that were initiated on a country-wide basis, Commerce intends to issue questionnaires to solicit information from producers and exporters in Mexico, concerning their shipments to the United States and the origin of any imported HFC blends being further processed into HFC blends subject to the Order.

Respondent Selection

Commerce intends to base respondent selection on U.S. Customs and Border and Protection (CBP) data. Commerce intends to place CBP data on the record within five days of the publication of the initiation notice. Comments regarding the CBP data and respondent selection should be submitted within seven days after placement of the CBP data on the record of this inquiry.

Commerce intends to establish a schedule for questionnaire responses after respondent selection. A company's failure to completely respond to Commerce's requests for information may result in the application of partial or total facts available, pursuant to section 776(a) of the Act, which may include adverse inferences, pursuant to section 776(b) of the Act.

Suspension of Liquidation

Pursuant to 19 CFR 351.226(l)(1), Commerce will notify CBP of the initiation of this circumvention inquiry and direct CBP to continue the suspension of liquidation of entries of products subject to the circumvention inquiry that were already subject to the suspension of liquidation under the Order and to apply the cash deposit rate that would be applicable if the product was determined to be covered by the scope of the Order. Should Commerce issue a preliminary or final circumvention determination, Commerce will follow the suspension of liquidation rules under 19 CFR 351.226(l)(2)–(4).

Notification to Interested Parties

In accordance with 19 CFR 351.226(d) and section 781(a) of the Act, Commerce determines that the American HFC Coalition's request for this circumvention inquiry satisfies the requirements of 19 CFR 351.226(c). Accordingly, Commerce is notifying all interested parties of the initiation of this circumvention inquiry to determine whether U.S. imports from Mexico of R-410B that are completed in Mexico using Chinese components and then blended into in-scope R-410A in the United States are circumventing the Order. In addition, we included a description of the product that is the subject of this inquiry and an explanation of the reasons for Commerce's decision to initiate this inquiry as provided above and in the accompanying Initiation Checklist. In accordance with 19 CFR 351.226(e)(1), Commerce intends to issue its preliminary determination no later than 150 days from the date of publication of the notice of initiation of this circumvention inquiry in the Federal Register.

This notice is published in accordance with section 781(a) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.226(d)(1)(ii).

Dated: October 23, 2023.

Raw Honey From the Socialist Republic of Vietnam: Initiation of Antidumping Duty Changed Circumstances Review

AGENCY: Enforcement and Compliance, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

SUMMARY: The U.S. Department of Commerce (Commerce) is initiating a changed circumstances review (CCR) of the antidumping duty (AD) order on raw honey from the Socialist Republic of Vietnam (Vietnam) to examine whether Vietnam remains a non-market economy (NME) country for purposes of the application of the AD law.

DATES: Applicable October 30, 2023.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On September 8, 2023, the Government of Vietnam (GOV) submitted a letter requesting that

Commerce conduct a review of Vietnam's status as an NME country¹ within the context of a CCR of the AD order on raw honey from Vietnam.² In the CCR Request, the GOV describes changes that have occurred in Vietnam in recent years as they relate to each of the statutory criteria Commerce uses to evaluate a country's market economy status. Specifically, in the CCR Request, the GOV contends that the Vietnamese dong is transparently convertible into other foreign currencies based on market principles, fairness, and non-discrimination.³ In the CCR Request, the GOV argues that bargaining between labor and management on wage rates in Vietnam is free, and that Vietnam now possesses a clear legal framework to ensure employees' basic rights.⁴ With regard to foreign direct investment, the GOV states in the CCR Request that Vietnam has made improvements in the investment environment, stating that no differences exist in how foreign and domestic investors are treated.⁵ In the CCR Request, the GOV also provides information on the reduction of government ownership and control over the means of production in Vietnam and maintains that private sector development, state-owned enterprise restructuring and divestment, and land reform initiatives have all been taken.⁶ As to the allocation of resources and the government's role in price and output decisions, the GOV states in the CCR Request that the GOV does not possess significant control over these areas.⁷ In the CCR Request, the GOV also identifies other factors that have been important to market-oriented reforms, including the establishment of a legal framework for bankruptcy, greater transparency in corporate governance, the launch of a legal framework for a state audit, a unified legal system, and diversified foreign economic relations.⁸

On October 6, 2023, the American Honey Producers Association and Sioux Honey Association (the petitioners) submitted comments in opposition to CCR Request.⁹ On October 17, 2023, the GOV submitted rebuttal comments in
