

The Applicant believes that the aforementioned conditions of the Notice should be amended to clarify that it will apply only to future cash recoveries that may arise from the Judgment. Therefore, the Applicant has revised Conditions (e) and (f)(3) of the final exemption to read as follows:

(e) Cotter pays the Plan future cash recoveries, if any, resulting from the Judgment; and * * *

(f)(3) [The independent fiduciary] ensures that the Plan receives all future cash recoveries, if any, resulting from the Judgment.

The Department does not concur with the Applicant's comment. Therefore, it has not revised Conditions (e) and (f)(3) of the operative language. Although the Department is aware of Mr. Geib's financial circumstances, it wishes to emphasize that to the extent Cotter recovers any consideration (either in cash or in kind) resulting from the Judgment, that such consideration should be paid to the Plan.

After giving full consideration to the entire record, the Department has decided to grant the exemption. The complete application file is made available for public inspection in the Public Disclosure Room of the Employee Benefits Security Administration, Room N-1513, U.S. Department of Labor, 200 Constitution Avenue, NW., Washington, DC 20210.

For a more complete statement of the facts and representations supporting the Department's decision to grant this exemption, refer to the notice of proposed exemption published on September 25, 2009 at 74 FR 49025.

General Information

The attention of interested persons is directed to the following:

(1) The fact that a transaction is the subject of an exemption under section 408(a) of the Act and/or section 4975(c)(2) of the Code does not relieve a fiduciary or other party in interest or disqualified person from certain other provisions to which the exemption does not apply and the general fiduciary responsibility provisions of section 404 of the Act, which among other things require a fiduciary to discharge his duties respecting the plan solely in the interest of the participants and beneficiaries of the plan and in a prudent fashion in accordance with section 404(a)(1)(B) of the Act; nor does it affect the requirement of section 401(a) of the Code that the plan must operate for the exclusive benefit of the employees of the employer maintaining the plan and their beneficiaries;

(2) This exemption is supplemental to and not in derogation of, any other provisions of the Act and/or the Code, including statutory or administrative exemptions and transactional rules. Furthermore, the fact that a transaction is subject to an administrative or statutory exemption is not dispositive of whether the transaction is in fact a prohibited transaction; and

(3) The availability of this exemption is subject to the express condition that the material facts and representations contained in the application accurately describes all material terms of the transaction which is the subject of the exemption.

Ultimizers, Inc., Boring, OR; Notice of Revised Determination on Reconsideration

By application dated September 21, 2009, a company official requested administrative reconsideration of the Department's negative determination regarding eligibility for workers and former workers of Ultimizers, Inc., Boring, Oregon (subject firm) to apply for Trade Adjustment Assistance (TAA). The Department's Notice of Affirmative Determination Regarding Application for Reconsideration was signed on October 15, 2009, and published in the Federal Register on October 27, 2009 (74 FR 55261).

The initial investigation resulted in a negative determination issued on September 9, 2009, was based on the finding that imports of optimizing lumber cut-off saws, feeders, sorters and scanners did not contribute importantly to worker separations at the subject firm and no shift in production to a foreign source occurred.

To support the request for reconsideration, the petitioner supplied additional information regarding lost bids by the subject firm during the relevant period. The Department of Labor conducted a bid survey of the domestic firms to which the subject facility was the lowest domestic bidder. The results of the survey revealed that the bids were awarded to foreign producers. The loss of these contracts contributed importantly to the declines in sales and employment at the subject firm. The investigation further revealed that sales, production and employment at the subject firm declined during the relevant period.

Conclusion

After careful review of the additional facts obtained on reconsideration, I determine that workers of Ultimizers, Inc., Boring, Oregon, who are engaged in activities related to the production of parts feeding and assembly equipment meet the worker group certification criteria under Section 222(a) of the Act, 19 U.S.C. 2272(a). In accordance with Section 223 of the Act, 19 U.S.C. 2273, I make the following certification:

All workers of Ultimizers, Inc., Boring, Oregon, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after May 18, 2008, through two years from the date of this certification, and all workers in the group threatened with total or partial separation from employment on date of certification through two years from the date of certification, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Chapter 2 of Title II of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended.

Signed in Washington, DC, this 10th day of December 2009.

Del Min Amy Chen,

Certifying Officer, Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Introduction

The U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission (NRC) is considering an application for the renewal of Facility Operating License No. R-102 ("Application"), which currently authorizes the University of New Mexico (UNM, the licensee) to operate the University of New Mexico AGN-201M Reactor (UNMR) at a maximum steady-state thermal power of 5 watts (W) thermal power.
