

is now being presented as a generic submission which will include multiple customer satisfaction surveys over the course of three years. At this time, only the initial survey has been developed and the subsequent surveys have yet to be envisioned. Once subsequent surveys and populations have been identified and finalized, NCI will submit generic information collections (Gen ICs) to OMB for review and approval. The original burden total presented in the 60-day Federal Register Notice is correct however it will be used over the period of three years.
