

economy, including how emerging markets are responding to harm caused by surging Chinese exports and the implications for U.S. supply chains and the competitiveness of U.S. firms in global markets. Next, the hearing will evaluate the national security risks from the United States' growing reliance on Chinese production across critical supply chains, including active pharmaceutical ingredients and related chemicals; biopharmaceuticals; foundational semiconductors; and printed circuit boards. Finally, the hearing will review U.S. policy efforts to bolster supply chain resiliency and consider how the U.S. government can better address risks to critical supply chains, including in defense production.

The hearing will be co-chaired by Commissioner Leland Miller and Commissioner Livia Shmavonian. Any interested party may file a written statement by June 5, 2025 by transmitting it to the contact above. A portion of the hearing will include a question and answer period between the Commissioners and the witnesses.

Type of Review: Revision of a currently approved collection.

Abstract: The VA Form 26–6393 is currently used by employees of both lending institutions and VA to determine the ability of a borrower to qualify for any type of VA-guaranteed loan authorized by 38 U.S.C. 3710(a). Lenders complete and submit the form to provide evidence that the lender's decision to submit a prior approval loan application or close a loan on the automatic basis is based upon appropriate application of VA credit standards as required by 38 U.S.C. 3710(b) and 3710(g). Section 36.4340, 38 CFR, implements those underwriting standards, which include evaluating income, expenses, and credit history. This form specifically pertains to those standards evaluating a borrower's present and anticipated income and expenses and credit history.

Affected Public: Individuals and households.

Estimated Annual Burden: 210,000 hours.

Estimated Average Burden Per Respondent: 30 minutes.

Frequency of Response: One-time.

Estimated Number of Respondents: 420,000.

Authority: 44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.
