Estimated average hours per response: Individuals: 16 hours; SLHCs: 16 hours.

Estimated annual burden hours: Individuals: 688 hours; SLHCs: 32 hours; total: 720 hours.

General description of report: The Federal Deposit Insurance (FDI) Act and the Board's Regulation LL (12 CFR part 238) prohibit individuals who have been convicted of certain criminal offenses or who have agreed to enter into a pretrial diversion or similar program in connection with a prosecution for such criminal offenses from participating in the affairs of a SLHC or any of its subsidiaries without the written consent of the Board. Such an individual, or the SLHC with which the individual seeks to participate, may apply for an exemption from this prohibition.

All prohibited persons and SLHCs that seek an exemption are subject to the application requirements of subpart I of Regulation LL. An applicant must provide information regarding the position at the SLHC held or to be held by the prohibited person, the prohibited person's level of ownership of the SLHC, the specific nature of the offense involved, evidence of rehabilitation, and other relevant factors listed in section 238.88(b) of Regulation LL (12 CFR 238.88(b)). Individual respondents may request that information submitted to the Board through the FR LL–12 be kept confidential. If a respondent requests confidential treatment, the Board will determine whether the information is entitled to confidential treatment on a case-by-case basis. Information collected through the FR LL–12 may be kept confidential under exemption 4 for the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), which protects privileged or confidential commercial or financial information, or under FOIA exemption 6, which covers personal information, the disclosure of which would constitute an unwarranted invasion of privacy. Additionally, to the extent the FR LL–12 contains information extracted from examination reports, it may be withheld from disclosure under FOIA exemption 8, which protects information "related to examination, operating, or condition reports."

Consultation outside the agency: The Board consulted with the FDIC on the burden estimate and the use of their form for Board submissions.

Assistant Secretary of the Board.
