DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE*International Trade Administration
[A-533-843]*Certain Lined Paper Products From India: Notice of Final Results of Antidumping Duty Administrative Review

AGENCY: Import Administration, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

SUMMARY: On October 7, 2011, the Department of Commerce (the Department) published in the Federal Register the preliminary results of the antidumping duty administrative review for certain lined paper products from India (CLPP).<sup>1</sup> This review covers 35 manufacturers and exporters of the subject merchandise,<sup>2</sup> including Navneet Publications (India) Limited (Navneet) and Riddhi Enterprises (Riddhi), for the period September 1, 2009, through August 31, 2010. As a result of our analysis of the comments received, these final results differ from the Preliminary Results. On February 3, 2012, the Department extended the final results of this review from February 6, 2012, to March 5, 2012.<sup>3</sup>

For our final results, we continue to find that Navneet and Riddhi have made sales of subject merchandise at less than normal value (NV). In addition, based on these final results for Navneet and Riddhi, we have determined that the 33 remaining non-selected companies will receive the weighted-average non-selected respondent rate as calculated in these final results.

DATES: Effective Date: March 13, 2012.

Stephanie Moore (Navneet) and George McMahon (Riddhi), AD/CVD Operations, Office 3, Import Administration, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 14th Street and Constitution Avenue NW., Washington, DC 20230; telephone: (202) 482-3692, (202) 482-1167, respectively.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:*Comments From Interested Parties

We invited parties to comment on our Preliminary Results. Riddhi submitted a case brief on November 4, 2011, and the petitioner and Navneet submitted case briefs on November 7, 2011, respectively. On November 14, 2011, Navneet filed a rebuttal brief. On November 15, 2011, the petitioner filed a rebuttal brief. The petitioner filed a letter on December 14, 2011, requesting that the Department reject Navneet's rebuttal brief claiming it included untimely filed new factual information. The Department found that Navneet did in fact, include certain untimely filed factual information in its rebuttal brief and rejected this brief on December 16, 2011.<sup>4</sup> Pursuant to the Department's letter of December 16, 2011, Navneet re-filed its rebuttal brief on December 23, 2011, to exclude the untimely filed factual information.<sup>5</sup>

Scope of the Order

The scope of this order includes certain lined paper products, typically school supplies (for purposes of this scope definition, the actual use of or labeling these products as school supplies or non-school supplies is not a defining characteristic) composed of or including paper that incorporates straight horizontal and/or vertical lines on ten or more paper sheets (there shall be no minimum page requirement for loose leaf filler paper) including but not limited to such products as single- and

<sup>4</sup> See the Department's letter to Navneet, titled "Rejection of Rebuttal Brief with Untimely Filed New Factual Information," dated December 16, 2011; see also Memo from George McMahon to the File titled, "Rejection of Submission Due to Untimely Filed New Factual Information," dated December 16, 2011.

<sup>5</sup> Pursuant to 19 CFR 351.301(b) and (c), parties in this administrative review may only file factual information (1) up to 140 days after the last day of the anniversary month of the review, (2) in response to Departmental requests, or (3) within 10 days after the submission of factual information by another party pursuant to the 140-day deadline or a Departmental request. Accordingly, based on these rules, new factual information is not permitted in case and rebuttal briefs. See, e.g., Stainless Steel Bar from India: Final Results of the Antidumping Duty Administrative Review, and Revocation of the Order, in Part, 76 FR 56401, 56402 (September 13, 2011).
