SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: After extensive environmental analysis, consideration of public comments, and application of pertinent Federal laws and policies, it is the decision of the BLM to offer to Lincoln County Water District (LCWD) a ROW grant for the construction, operation, maintenance and termination of the mainline water pipeline, main power lines, pump stations, regulating tanks and other ancillary facilities of the project. Pursuant to the Lincoln County Conservation, Recreation and Development Act of 2004, Public Law 108-424, the ROW grant will authorize the use of public lands in perpetuity. The BLM's decision authorizes issuance of a ROW grant to LCWD for the proposed action as analyzed in the Final Environmental Impact Statement (EIS), issued in May 2009. The Environmental Protection Agency published a Notice of Availability of the Final EIS in the Federal Register on May 29, 2009.

The decision by BLM to offer the ROW grant to LCWD is appealable subject to 43 CFR 4, subpart E—Special Rules Applicable to Public Land Hearings and Appeals, and 43 CFR 2801.10. Any party adversely affected by this decision may appeal within the 30-day timeframe by filing an appeal with the BLM Ely District Manager at the address listed above. To file a petition for a stay of the effectiveness of this decision during the time that an appeal is being reviewed by the Interior Board of Land Appeals, the petition for a stay must accompany the Notice of Appeal (43 CFR 4.21 or 43 CFR 2801.10). The appeal and petition for a stay (if requested) must be filed with the Ely District Manager, Bureau of Land Management, 702 North Industrial Way, HC33, Box 33500, Ely Nevada 89301, or Fax: (775) 289-1910.

Copies of the appeal should also be filed with:

- Project Manager, Nevada Groundwater Projects Office, Bureau of Land Management, P.O. Box 12000, Reno, Nevada 89520, or Fax: (775) 861-6689.
- Office of Hearings and Appeals, U.S. Department of the Interior, 801 North Quincy Street, Suite 300, Arlington, Virginia 22203-1710, or Fax: (703) 235-8349.
- Office of the Solicitor, Pacific Southwest Region, U.S. Department of the Interior, 2800 Cottage Way, Suite E-1712, Sacramento, California 95825, or Fax: (916) 978-5694.

Persons interested in filing an appeal are encouraged to consult the cited Federal regulations for additional appeal requirements.

(4) Affected public who will be asked or required to respond, as well as a brief abstract:

Primary: County, City, and Tribal jail authorities. This collection is the only effort that provides an ability to maintain important jail statistics in years between jail censuses. The ASJ series enables the Bureau; Federal, State, local, and Tribal correctional administrators; legislators; researchers; and planners to track growth in the number of jails and their capacities nationally; as well as, track changes in the demographics and supervision status of jail population and the prevalence of crowding. Information collected in the long form and survey addendums provide critical data on jail population movements and inmate mental and medical health services and other programs available to confined inmates.

For CJ-5 and CJ-5A (ASJ regular form), 561 respondents from county and city jails will be asked to provide information for the following categories:

(a) At midyear (last weekday in the month of June), the number of inmates confined in jail facilities including: male and female adult and juvenile inmates; persons under age 18 held as adults; convicted and unconvicted males and females; race categories; held for Federal authorities, State prison authorities and other local jail jurisdictions;

(b) At midyear, the number of persons under jail supervision who were not U.S. citizens;

(c) Whether the jail facilities has a weekend incarceration program prior to midyear and the number of inmates participating;

(d) The number of new admissions into and final discharges from jail facilities during the last week in June;

(e) The date and count for the greatest number of confined inmates during the 30-day period in June;

(f) The average daily population of jail facilities from July 1 of the previous year to June 30 of the current collection year;

(g) At midyear, the total rated capacity of jail facilities;

(h) At midyear, the number of persons under jail supervision but not confined (e.g., electronic monitoring, day reporting, etc.).

For CJ-5B (SJIC form), respondents from 85 Indian country correctional facilities operated by tribal authorities or the Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA) will be asked to provide information for the following categories:

(a) At midyear (last weekday in the month of June), the number of inmates confined in jail facilities including: male and female adult and juvenile inmates; persons under age 18 held as adults; convicted and unconvicted males and females; persons held for a felony, misdemeanor; their most serious offense (e.g., domestic violence offense, aggravated or simple assault, driving while intoxicated, etc.).

(b) The average daily population during the 30-day period in June;

(c) The date and count for the greatest number of confined inmates during the 30-day period in June;

(d) The number of new admissions into and final discharges during the month of June;

(e) From July 1 of the previous year to June 30 of the current collection year: the number of inmate deaths while confined and the number of deaths attributed to suicide and the number of confined inmates that attempted suicide;

(f) At midyear, the total rated capacity of jail facilities;

(g) At midyear, the inmate housing characteristics and the number held (e.g., single occupied cells or rooms, multiple occupied units originally designed for single occupancy; multiple occupied units designed for multiple occupancy, temporary holding areas, etc.);

(h) At midyear, whether or not the jail facility was under a Tribal, State, or Federal court order or consent decree to limit the number of persons it can house (and the count), and/or for conditions of confinement;
