SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Build America, Buy America Act (the Act) was enacted on November 15, 2021, as part of the Infrastructure Investment and Jobs Act (IIJA). Public Law 117–58. The Act establishes a domestic content procurement preference (the “Buy American Preference,” or “BAP”) that applies to HUD’s Federal financial assistance for Federal infrastructure programs. On June 1, 2022, HUD published a Request for Information (RFI) in the Federal Register to seek public input on the implementation of the Build America, Buy America Act (the Act) as it applies to HUD’s Federal Financial Assistance. 87 FR 33193.

The RFI specifically sought input on the potential documentation and information collection necessary to estimate the information collection burden and assist HUD in the development of a Paperwork Reduction Act (PRA) package associated with a proposed general applicability waiver to the Act’s BAP that HUD published on April 29, 2022. 87 FR 26219. In this waiver notice, HUD stated that recipients of Federal Financial Assistance from HUD are unfamiliar with the BAP and additional information collection requirements, as HUD’s programs have not previously been subject to a similar Buy American preference. Thus, HUD found a general applicability waiver of the BAP to be in the public interest until HUD had the opportunity to fully review public comments on how to effectively reduce the burden on the public arising from information collection necessary to implement the Act.

Though not directly related to the June 1, 2022, RFI, HUD published a second proposed general applicability waiver of the BAP to HUD’s Federal Financial Assistance awards for Tribes, Tribally Designated Housing Entities (TDHEs), and other Tribal Entities. 87 FR 26221. As provided in that notice, given that the BAP is new to HUD’s Federal Financial Assistance directed to Tribes, TDHEs, and other Tribal Entities and the potential impact of the BAP on Tribal recipients, HUD found it would counter to the public interest to apply the BAP prior to completion of the Tribal consultation process. A general applicability waiver would provide the Department with sufficient time to comply with HUD’s Tribal consultation process in recognition of Tribes’ right to self-government and to inform a tailored implementation for Tribal recipients.

HUD’s June 1, 2022, RFI established a comment due date of July 1, 2022. HUD has determined that an extension of the deadline would provide the time needed for HUD Federal Financial Assistance recipients; Federal, State, local, and Tribal government officials; and relevant stakeholders to submit comments and provide the specific information requested. Therefore, HUD is announcing through this notice an extended public comment period, for an additional 14-day period, to July 15, 2022.

Marcia L. Fudge,

Secretary.
