History and Description of the Remains

In 1994, human remains representing, at minimum, three individuals were removed from site 12-M-623, in Madison County, IN, during a construction project. At the request of the Indiana Department of Natural Resources, Division of Historic Preservation and Archaeology, Ball State University, Department of Anthropology conducted a salvage excavation. The materials have been on loan to Ball State University, Department of Anthropology since their recovery. The human remains include the partial skeleton of an adult male 30–35 years old; the partial skeleton of a juvenile of unknown sex less than 6 years old; and a single clavicle fragment belonging to an individual of unknown age and sex. No known individuals were identified. No associated funerary objects are present.

Determinations Made by the Indiana Department of Natural Resources, Division of Historic Preservation and Archaeology

Officials of the Indiana Department of Natural Resources, Division of Historic Preservation and Archaeology have determined that:

- Pursuant to 25 U.S.C. 3001(9), the human remains described in this notice are Native American based on the context of discovery and analysis of the human remains.
- Pursuant to 25 U.S.C. 3001(9), the human remains described in this notice represent the physical remains of three individuals of Native American ancestry.
- Pursuant to 25 U.S.C. 3001(2), a relationship of shared group identity cannot be reasonably traced between the Native American human remains and associated funerary objects and any present-day Indian Tribe.
- According to final judgments of the Indian Claims Commission or the Court of Federal Claims, the land from which the Native American human remains and associated funerary objects were removed is the aboriginal land of the Delaware Nation, Oklahoma; Delaware Tribe of Indians; and the Miami Tribe of Oklahoma (hereafter referred to as "The Tribes").
- Pursuant to 43 CFR 10.11(c)(1), the disposition of the human remains may be to The Tribes.

Additional Requestors and Disposition

Representatives of any Indian Tribe or Native Hawaiian organization not identified in this notice that wish to request transfer of control of these human remains and associated funerary objects should submit a written request with information in support of the request to Dr. Kevin C. Nolan, Applied Anthropology Laboratories, Ball State University, 2000 W University Avenue, Muncie, IN 47306, telephone (765) 285-5325, email kcnolan@bsu.edu, by December 7, 2020. After that date, if no additional requestors have come forward, transfer of control of the human remains and associated funerary objects to The Tribes may proceed.

The Indiana Department of Natural Resources, Division of Historic Preservation and Archaeology is responsible for notifying The Consulted Tribes and The Invited Tribes that this notice has been published.
