Estimated Reporting and Recordkeeping “Non-Hour Cost”

Burden: We have identified no paperwork non-hour cost burdens associated with this collection of information.

Public Disclosure Statement: The PRA (44 U.S.C. 3501, et seq.) provides that an agency may not conduct or sponsor a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number. Until OMB approves a collection of information, you are not obligated to respond.

Comments: Section 3506(c)(2)(A) of the PRA (44 U.S.C. 3501, et seq.) requires each agency “* * * to provide notice * * * and otherwise consult with members of the public and affected agencies concerning each proposed collection of information * * *”. Agencies must specifically solicit comments to: (a) Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the agency to perform its duties, including whether the information is useful; (b) evaluate the accuracy of the agency’s estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information; (c) enhance the quality, usefulness, and clarity of the information to be collected; and (d) minimize the burden on the respondents, including the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology.

To comply with the public consultation process, on May 28, 2008, we published a Federal Register notice (73 FR 30625) announcing that we would submit this ICR to OMB for approval. The notice provided the required 60-day comment period. In addition, § 250.199 provides the OMB control number for the information collection requirements imposed by the 30 CFR 250 regulations and forms. The regulation also informs the public that they may comment at any time on the collections of information and provides the address to which they should send comments. We have received no comments in response to these efforts.

If you wish to comment in response to this notice, you may send your comments to the offices listed under the ADDRESSES section of this notice. The OMB has up to 60 days to approve or disapprove the information collection but may respond after 30 days. Therefore, to ensure maximum consideration, OMB should receive public comments by November 21, 2008.

Public Availability of Comments: Before including your address, phone number, e-mail address, or other personal identifying information in your comment, you should be aware that your entire comment—including your personal identifying information—may be made publicly available at any time. While you can ask us in your comment to withhold your personal identifying information from public review, we cannot guarantee that we will be able to do so.

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

Notice of Lodging of Consent Decree

Pursuant to Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act

Notice is hereby given that on October 15, 2008, a proposed consent decree ("Consent Decree") in United States and State of Maine v. J. K. Wright, Inc. and J. Kenton Wright, Civil Action No. 07-cv-116-B-W, was lodged with the United States District Court for the District of Maine.

In this action the United States and the State of Maine sought reimbursement of past response costs pursuant to Section 107(a) of CERCLA, 42 U.S.C. 9607(a), incurred at the Hows Corner Superfund Site in Plymouth, Maine ("Site"). The United States filed its complaint pursuant to section 107 of CERCLA against the Defendants on August 8, 2007. The proposed Consent Decree resolves the claims asserted in the complaint. Pursuant to the proposed Consent Decree Defendants agree to pay $28,220 to the United States and $5,780 to the State of Maine, in reimbursement of past response costs at the Site.
