

and (if the merchandise under investigation is sold at the retail level) representative consumer organizations have the right to appear as parties in Commission antidumping investigations. The Secretary will prepare a public service list containing the names and addresses of all persons, or their representatives, who are parties to these investigations upon the expiration of the period for filing entries of appearance.

Limited disclosure of business proprietary information (BPI) under an administrative protective order (APO) and BPI service list.—Pursuant to section 207.7(a) of the Commission's rules, the Secretary will make BPI gathered in these investigations available to authorized applicants representing interested parties (as defined in 19 U.S.C. 1677(9)) who are parties to the investigations under the APO issued in the investigations, provided that the application is made not later than seven days after the publication of this notice in the Federal Register. A separate service list will be maintained by the Secretary for those parties authorized to receive BPI under the APO.

Conference.—The Commission's Director of Operations has scheduled a conference in connection with these investigations for 9:30 a.m. on April 30, 2001, at the U.S. International Trade Commission Building, 500 E Street SW., Washington, DC. Parties wishing to participate in the conference should contact Jeff Clark (202-205-3195) not later than April 26, 2001, to arrange for their appearance. Parties in support of the imposition of antidumping duties in these investigations and parties in opposition to the imposition of such duties will each be collectively allocated one hour within which to make an oral presentation at the conference. A nonparty who has testimony that may aid the Commission's deliberations may request permission to present a short statement at the conference.

Written submissions.—As provided in sections 201.6 and 207.15 of the Commission's rules, any person may submit to the Commission on or before May 3, 2001, a written brief containing information and arguments pertinent to the subject matter of the investigations. Parties may file written testimony in connection with their presentation at the conference no later than three days before the conference. If briefs or written testimony contain BPI, they must conform with the requirements of sections 201.6, 207.3, and 207.7 of the Commission's rules. The Commission's rules do not authorize filing of submissions with the Secretary by facsimile or electronic means.

In accordance with sections 201.16(c) and 207.3 of the rules, each document filed by a party to the investigations must be served on all other parties to the investigations (as identified by either the public or BPI service list), and a certificate of service must be timely filed. The Secretary will not accept a document for filing without a certificate of service.

Authority: These investigations are being conducted under authority of title VII of the Tariff Act of 1930; this notice is published pursuant to section 207.12 of the Commission's rules.

By order of the Commission.

Issued: April 11, 2001.

Donna R. Koehnke,
Secretary.

BILLING CODE 7020-02-P

INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

[Investigation No. 332-429]

Wheat Trading Practices: Competitive Conditions Between U.S. and Canadian Wheat

AGENCY: United States International Trade Commission (ITC).

ACTION: Initiation of investigation and notice of hearing.

EFFECTIVE DATE: April 12, 2001.

SUMMARY: Following receipt of a request on April 2, 2001, from the United States Trade Representative (USTR), under section 332(g) of the Tariff Act of 1930, the Commission instituted investigation No. 332-429, Wheat Trading Practices: Competitive Conditions Between U.S. and Canadian Wheat.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: For general information, contact John Reeder (202-205-3319; reeder@usitc.gov), or Roger Corey (202-205-3327; corey@usitc.gov), Agriculture and Forest Products Division, Office of Industries. For information on legal aspects, contact William Gearhart (202-205-3091; wgearhart@usitc.gov), Office of the General Counsel, U.S. International Trade Commission. Hearing impaired persons can obtain information on these studies by contacting the Commission's TDD terminal on (202) 205-1810. General information concerning the Commission may also be obtained by accessing its internet server (<http://www.usitc.gov>).

Background: As requested by the USTR, the Commission will provide the following information in its report to the extent possible:

- A summary of a survey of U.S. Hard Red Spring wheat and Durum wheat purchasers, including wheat millers, as to the conditions of competition between U.S. and Canadian wheat during the 5 most recent years, including such data as quantity and prices, technical considerations in the purchase and sale of U.S. versus Canadian wheat, and other relevant factors of competition;

- A summary of a survey of U.S. Hard Red Spring wheat and Durum wheat exporters as to conditions of competition in key foreign markets in Latin America, the Philippines and other significant markets, between U.S. and Canadian wheat during the 5 most recent years, providing such data as quantity and prices, lost sales of U.S. wheat versus Canadian wheat, technical considerations in the purchase and sale of U.S. versus Canadian wheat, and other relevant factors of competition; and

- A summary of the current conditions of wheat trade between the United States and Canada, including relevant information on prices, exchange rates, transportation, marketing practices, U.S. and Canadian farm policies, and other significant economic factors that might be relevant.

The Commission plans to submit the confidential report to USTR by September 24, 2001, as requested. The letter stated that the Office of the USTR in October 2000 initiated an investigation under section 301 of the Trade Act of 1974 concerning the acts, policies, and practices of the Canadian Wheat Board (CWB) and the Government of Canada, and that in the course of that investigation representatives of the U.S. wheat industry alleged a number of potentially trade distorting practices, including CWB standing offers to undersell irrespective of market conditions in Canada, the United States and third markets, and a CWB practice of regularly supplying protein levels that are higher than the levels specified in the sales contracts.

Public Hearing: A public hearing in connection with the investigation will be held at the U.S. International Trade Commission Building, 500 E Street SW., Washington, DC, beginning at 9:30 a.m. on June 6, 2001. All persons shall have the right to appear, by counsel or in person, to present information and to be heard. Requests to appear at the public hearing should be filed with the Secretary, United States International Trade Commission, 500 E Street SW., Washington, DC 20436, no later than 5:15 p.m., May 23, 2001. All prehearing briefs (original and 14 copies) should be filed not later than 5:15 p.m., May 25, 2001; the deadline for filing post-hearing briefs or statement is 5:15 p.m., June 18, 2001. In the event that, as of the close of business on May 24, 2001, no witnesses are scheduled to appear at the hearing, the hearing will be canceled. Any person interested in attending the hearing as an observer or non-participant may call the Secretary of the Commission (202-205-1806) after May 24, 2001, to determine whether the hearing will be held.

Written Submissions: Commercial or financial information that a person desires the Commission to treat as confidential must be submitted on separate sheets of paper, each clearly marked "Confidential Business Information" at the top. All written submissions must conform with the provisions of section 201.8 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 CFR 201.8). All submissions requesting confidential treatment must conform with the requirements of section 201.6 of the Commission's Rules (19 CFR 201.6). All written submissions, except for confidential business information, will be made available for inspection by interested persons in the Office of the Secretary to the Commission. To be assured of consideration, written statements relating to the Commission's report should be submitted at the earliest possible date and should be received not later than June 18, 2001. All submissions should be addressed to the Secretary, United States International Trade Commission, 500 E Street SW., Washington, DC 20436. The Commission's rules do not authorize filing submissions with the Secretary by facsimile or electronic means. Persons with mobility impairments who will need special assistance in gaining access to the Commission should contact the Office of the Secretary at 202-205-2000.

List of Subjects: Wheat, imports, exports, wheat trading practices, Canadian Wheat Board, Durum wheat, Hard Red Spring wheat.

Issued: April 13, 2001.

By order of the Commission.

Donna R. Koehnke,
Secretary.

BILLING CODE 7020-02-M

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

Office of the Secretary

Bureau of International Labor Affairs; Office of Foreign Relations; Global HIV/AIDS Workplace Education Program

AGENCY: Bureau of International Labor Affairs (ILAB), Office of the Secretary, Labor.

ACTION: Notice of availability of funds and request for interested parties.

SUMMARY: The Bureau of International Labor Affairs (ILAB) in the Office of the Secretary, will award funds to multilateral organizations (other than profit-making organizations) to develop and implement HIV/AIDS workplace education programs on a worldwide basis. ILAB is seeking notices of interest from qualified organizations for the implementation of workplace prevention education for HIV/AIDS, capacity building activities for government, business, and labor to respond to the pandemic outbreak, and development of workplace policy statements addressing the issue of stigma and discrimination against people living with HIV/AIDS. Applications should not be submitted; another notice will announce the solicitation for grant applications, if necessary. Authority for this program may be found in the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2001.

DATES: The notice deadline is 4:30 p.m., Eastern Daylight Time, May 3, 2001. Notice must be mailed to Lisa Harvey, Grant Officer, OASAM, U.S. Department of Labor, 200 Constitution Avenue, NW., Room N 5416, Washington, DC 20210. Notices will not be accepted by fax.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Cathryn Celeste Helm, Coordinator, USDOL Global HIV/AIDS Workplace Program, telephone: (202) 693-4818 (this is not a toll-free number); e-mail: helm-cathryn@dol.gov <<mailto:helm-cathryn@dol.gov>>

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

What Is the Purpose of the Program?

The grants provide funds for prevention and education activities focusing on training for Ministries of Labor, employers, and workers (tripartite stakeholders) to reduce the number of new HIV infections for workers, their families, and communities.

The program emphasizes three areas:

- Prevention education in the workplace for HIV/AIDS, addressing gender issues and referral to care and support services, including confidential voluntary counseling and testing;

- Workplace policy statements/codes of conduct addressing issues of discrimination against workers living with HIV/AIDS; and
- Capacity building for the tripartite social partners—coordinating and strengthening the response of government, business, and labor leaders.

Grantees are expected to conduct mission trips in targeted countries, develop project designs, implement comprehensive education programs addressing HIV/AIDS and related socio-economic issues, develop workplace policy statements addressing issues of discrimination, work with the tripartite stakeholders to provide prevention education and build political will, and conduct studies on the socio-economic impact of HIV/AIDS. Grantees also will be expected to monitor and evaluate the results of the program through baseline and knowledge assessment surveys.

Who Is Eligible To Apply for a Grant?

Any multilateral organization (other than profit-making organizations) is eligible to apply.

What Can Grant Funds Be Spent On?

Grant funds can be spent on any of the following:

- Conducting mission trips.
- Developing project designs.
- Development and dissemination of information, education, and communication (IEC) materials.
- Conducting training activities, including workshops.
- Developing workplace policy statements.
- Reviewing labor laws on discrimination.
- Impact studies on the socio-economic impact of HIV/AIDS.
- Conducting baseline surveys and knowledge assessment studies.

What Are the Grant Requirements?

* ILAB overview of project designs. ILAB will review project designs developed by the grantee for necessary project components and technical relevance of activities. ILAB will also review information, education and communication materials.

* OMB and regulatory requirements. Grantees must comply with the following requirements:

- 29 CFR part 95, which covers grant requirements for nonprofit organizations, when applicable.
- OMB Circular A-122, which describes allowable and unallowable costs for nonprofit organizations, other than educational institutions, when applicable.
