

A proposed rule change filed pursuant to Rule 19b-4(f)(6) under the Act²² normally does not become operative for 30 days after the date of its filing. However, Rule 19b-4(f)(6)(iii)²³ permits the Commission to designate a shorter time if such action is consistent with the protection of investors and the public interest. The Exchange has requested that the Commission waive the 30-day operative delay so that the proposed rule change may become operative upon filing.

The Commission believes that waiving the 30-day operative delay is consistent with the protection of investors and the public interest. As other exchanges offer similar products to their members, the proposal does not raise new or novel issues. For these reasons, the Commission designates that the proposed rule change to be operative immediately upon filing.²⁴

At any time within 60 days of the filing of the proposed rule change, the Commission summarily may temporarily suspend such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act. If the Commission takes such action, the Commission shall institute proceedings to determine whether the proposed rule change should be approved or disapproved.

IV. Solicitation of Comments

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[Release No. 34-97178; File No. SR-OCC-2022-012]

Self-Regulatory Organizations; Options Clearing Corporation; Order Instituting Proceedings To Determine Whether To Approve or Disapprove a Proposed Rule Change Concerning the Options Clearing Corporation's Collateral Haircuts and Standards for Clearing Banks and Letters of Credit

March 21, 2023.

I. Introduction

On December 5, 2022, the Options Clearing Corporation ("OCC") filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission") the proposed rule change SR-OCC-2022-

²² 17 CFR 240.19b-4(f)(6).

²³ 17 CFR 240.19b-4(f)(6)(iii).

²⁴ For purposes only of waiving the 30-day operative delay, the Commission has considered the proposed rule's impact on efficiency, competition, and capital formation. 15 U.S.C. 78c(f).

²⁵ 17 CFR 200.30-3(a)(12).

012 (“Proposed Rule Change”) pursuant to Section 19(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (“Exchange Act”) ¹ and Rule 19b–4 ² thereunder to change rules, policies, and procedures regarding collateral haircuts, minimum standards for clearing banks and letter-of-credit issuers, and concentration limits for letters of credit.³ The Proposed Rule Change was published for public comment in the Federal Register on December 23, 2022.⁴ The Commission has received comments regarding the Proposed Rule Change.⁵

On February 3, 2023, pursuant to Section 19(b)(2) of the Exchange Act,⁶ the Commission designated a longer period within which to approve, disapprove, or institute proceedings to determine whether to approve or disapprove the Proposed Rule Change.⁷ This order institutes proceedings, pursuant to Section 19(b)(2)(B) of the Exchange Act,⁸ to determine whether to approve or disapprove the Proposed Rule Change.

II. Summary of the Proposed Rule Change

OCC is a central counterparty (“CCP”), which means it interposes itself as the buyer to every seller and seller to every buyer for financial transactions. As the CCP for the listed options markets in the U.S.,⁹ as well as for certain futures, OCC is exposed to certain risks arising from its relationships with its members as well as the banks that support OCC’s clearance and settlement services. Such risks include credit risk because OCC is obligated to perform on the contracts it clears even where one of its members defaults. OCC manages credit risk, in part, by collecting collateral from members (i.e., margin and Clearing Fund resources) sufficient to cover OCC’s credit exposure to Clearing Members under a wide range of stress scenarios. In doing so, OCC requires its Clearing Members to deposit collateral as margin to support obligations on short options, futures contracts, and other obligations arising within the members’ accounts at OCC. OCC also requires its members to deposit collateral serving as Clearing Fund assets to protect OCC, should the margin of a defaulting member be insufficient to address the potential losses from the defaulting member’s positions. OCC imposes a haircut to collateral to address the risk that such collateral may be worth less in the future than at the time it was pledged to OCC. With regard to risks posed by the banks that support OCC’s clearance and settlement services, OCC maintains standards for third-party relationships, such as those with banks through which OCC conducts settlement (“Clearing Banks”), and banks that issue letters of credit that Clearing Members may deposit as margin collateral.

As described in the Notice of Filing,¹⁰ OCC proposes to revise its rules, including certain policies,¹¹ to make the following three changes related to the management of collateral haircuts and banking relationships:

- (1) Replace the current processes for applying haircuts to Government and Government-Sponsored Enterprise (“GSE”) debt securities provided as collateral ¹² with a new process for applying fixed collateral haircuts that it would set and adjust from time to time, based on a process defined in OCC’s Collateral Risk Management Policy;
- (2) Codify internal standards for Clearing Banks and letter-of-credit issuers in OCC’s Rules to provide transparency on minimum standards for banking relationships that are critical to OCC’s clearance and settlement services; and
- (3) Authorize OCC to set more restrictive concentration limits for letters of credit than those limits currently codified in its Rules.

III. Proceedings To Determine Whether To Approve or Disapprove the Proposed Rule Change and Grounds for Disapproval Under Consideration

The Commission is instituting proceedings pursuant to Section 19(b)(2)(B) of the Exchange Act ¹³ to determine whether the Proposed Rule Change should be approved or disapproved. Institution of proceedings is appropriate at this time in view of the legal and policy issues raised by the Proposed Rule Change. Institution of proceedings does not indicate that the Commission has reached any conclusions with respect to any of the issues involved. Rather, the Commission seeks and encourages interested persons to comment on the Proposed Rule Change, providing the Commission with arguments to support the Commission’s analysis as to whether to approve or disapprove the Proposed Rule Change.

Pursuant to Section 19(b)(2)(B) of the Exchange Act,¹⁴ the Commission is providing notice of the grounds for disapproval under consideration. The Commission is instituting proceedings to allow for additional analysis of, and input from commenters with respect to, the Proposed Rule Change’s consistency with Section 17A of the Exchange Act,¹⁵ and the rules thereunder, including the following provisions:

- Section 17A(b)(3)(F) of the Exchange Act,¹⁶ which requires, among other things, that the rules of a clearing agency are designed to promote the prompt and accurate clearance and settlement of securities transactions and derivative agreements, contracts, and transactions; and to assure the safeguarding of securities and funds which are in the custody or control of the clearing agency or for which it is responsible; and
- Section 17A(b)(3)(I) of the Exchange Act,¹⁷ which requires that the rules of a clearing agency do not impose any burden on competition not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Exchange Act.

IV. Procedure: Request for Written Comments

The Commission requests that interested persons provide written submissions of their views, data, and arguments with respect to the issues identified above, as well as any other concerns they may have with the Proposed Rule Change. In particular, the Commission invites the written views of interested persons concerning whether the Proposed Rule Change is consistent with Sections 17A(b)(3)(F) and (I) of the Exchange Act,¹⁸ or any other provision of the Exchange Act, or the rules and regulations thereunder. Although there do not appear to be any issues relevant to approval or disapproval that would be facilitated by an oral presentation of views, data, and arguments, the Commission will consider, pursuant to Rule 19b–4(g) under the Exchange
