plant began importing pneumatic controls shortly before the investigation was instituted and continued to increase their imports of pneumatic controls to compensate for the pneumatic controls once produced at the subject plant.

Conclusion

After careful review of the additional facts obtained on reconsideration, I conclude that increased imports of articles like or directly competitive with those produced at Tridelta Industries, Inc., Mentor, Ohio, contributed importantly to the declines in sales or production and to the total or partial separation of workers at the subject firm. In accordance with the provisions of the Act, I make the following certification:

All workers of Tridelta Industries, Inc., Mentor, Ohio, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after May 18, 2000 through two years from the date of this certification, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed in Washington, DC this 5th day of November 2001.

Edward A. Tomchick,

Director, Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

cushions for airbags at the Ogden Utah location of the subject firm.

Workers separations occurred at Adecco as a result of worker separations at Autoliv, ASP, Inc., Cushion Manufacturing Facility, Ogden, Utah.

Based on these findings, the Department is amending the certification to include workers of Adecco employed at Autoliv, ASP, Inc., Cushion Manufacturing Facility, Ogden, Utah.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Autoliv, ASP, Inc., Cushion Manufacturing Facility, Ogden, Utah adversely affected by a shift in production of airbag cushions to Mexico.

The amended notice applicable to NAFTA-4275 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Autoliv, ASP, Inc., Cushion Manufacturing Facility, Ogden, Utah including leased workers of Adecco, Ogden, Utah engaged in the production of cushions for airbags at Autoliv, ASP, Inc., Cushion Manufacturing Facility, Ogden, Utah, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after November 6, 1999, through March 8, 2003, are eligible to apply for NAFTA-TAA under Section 250 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, DC this 5th day of November, 2001.

Linda G. Poole,

Certifying Officer, Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance.
