

Complex Orders during a trading halt does not impose an undue burden on intra-market competition as all members and member organizations would be uniformly subject to the proposed rule.

The proposed amendment to Options 3, Section 9 to modify the manner in which the System handles Market Complex Orders during a trading halt does not impose an undue burden on inter-market competition as other options markets may similarly handle their Complex Orders as proposed by Phlx.

Simple Order Risk Protections

The Exchange's proposal to amend its Market Wide Risk Protection within Options 3, Section 15(a)(3) to consider counts for Complex Orders with options legs in addition to single-leg orders within (2) through (6) of Options 3, Section 15(a)(3) does not impose an undue burden on intra-market competition as all members and member organizations would be uniformly subject to the proposed rule.

The Exchange's proposal to amend its Market Wide Risk Protection within Options 3, Section 15(a)(3) to consider counts for Complex Orders with options legs in addition to single-leg orders within (2) through (6) of Options 3, Section 15(a)(3) does not impose an undue burden on inter-market competition as other options markets have similar complex order risk protections.¹⁴¹

Complex Order Risk Protections

The Exchange's proposal to adopt Complex Order Protections at Options 3, Section 16 does not impose an undue burden on intra-market competition as all members and member organizations would be uniformly subject to the proposed rule.

The Exchange's proposal to adopt Complex Order Protections at Options 3, Section 16 does not impose an undue burden on inter-market competition as other options markets have similar complex order risk protections.¹⁴²

Order Routing

The Exchange's proposal to amend Options 5, Section 4(a) related to routing does not impose an undue burden on intra-market competition as all members and member organizations would be uniformly subject to the Routing Rule.

The Exchange's proposal to amend Options 5, Section 4(a) is consistent with the Act as the Exchange does not impose an undue burden on inter-market competition as ISE has an identical routing rule.¹⁴³

C. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received From Members, Participants, or Others

No written comments were either solicited or received.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

Because the foregoing proposed rule change does not: (i) significantly affect the protection of investors or the public interest; (ii) impose any significant burden on competition; and (iii) become operative for 30 days from the date on which it was filed, or such shorter time as the Commission may designate, it has become effective pursuant to Section 19(b)(3)(A)(iii) of the Act¹⁴⁴ and subparagraph (f)(6) of Rule 19b-4 thereunder.¹⁴⁵

At any time within 60 days of the filing of the proposed rule change, the Commission summarily may temporarily suspend such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act. If the Commission takes such action, the Commission shall institute proceedings to determine whether the proposed rule should be approved or disapproved.

IV. Solicitation of Comments

Interested persons are invited to submit written data, views and arguments concerning the foregoing, including whether the proposed rule change is consistent with the Act. Comments may be submitted by any of the following methods:

Electronic Comments

- Use the Commission's internet comment form (<https://www.sec.gov/rules/sro.shtml>); or
- Send an email to rule-comments@sec.gov. Please include file number SR-Phlx-2025-17 on the subject line.

Paper Comments

- Send paper comments in triplicate to Secretary, Securities and Exchange

¹⁴³ See ISE Options 5, Section 4.

¹⁴⁴ 15 U.S.C. 78s(b)(3)(A)(iii).

¹⁴⁵ 17 CFR 240.19b-4(f)(6). In addition, Rule 19b-4(f)(6) requires a self-regulatory organization to give the Commission written notice of its intent to file the proposed rule change at least five business days prior to the date of filing of the proposed rule change, or such shorter time as designated by the Commission. The Exchange has satisfied this requirement.

Commission, 100 F Street NE, Washington, DC 20549-1090.

All submissions should refer to file number SR-Phlx-2025-17. This file number should be included on the subject line if email is used. To help the Commission process and review your comments more efficiently, please use only one method. The Commission will post all comments on the Commission's internet website (<https://www.sec.gov/rules/sro.shtml>). Copies of the submission, all subsequent amendments, all written statements with respect to the proposed rule change that are filed with the Commission, and all written communications relating to the proposed rule change between the Commission and any person, other than those that may be withheld from the public in accordance with the provisions of 5 U.S.C. 552, will be available for website viewing and printing in the Commission's Public Reference Room, 100 F Street NE, Washington, DC 20549, on official business days between the hours of 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. Copies of the filing also will be available for inspection and copying at the principal office of the Exchange. Do not include personal identifiable information in submissions; you should submit only information that you wish to make available publicly. We may redact in part or withhold entirely from publication submitted material that is obscene or subject to copyright protection. All submissions should refer to file number SR-Phlx-2025-17 and should be submitted on or before May 12, 2025.

For the Commission, by the Division of Trading and Markets, pursuant to delegated authority.¹⁴⁶

Sherry R. Haywood,

Assistant Secretary.

[Public Notice: 12702]

Notice of Public Meeting in Preparation for International Maritime Organization (NCSR) 12 Meeting

The Department of State will conduct a public meeting at 10 a.m. on Wednesday, May 7, 2025, both in-person at Coast Guard Headquarters in Washington, DC, and via teleconference. The primary purpose of the meeting is to prepare for the twelfth session of the International Maritime Organization’s (IMO) Sub-Committee on Navigation, Communication and Search and Rescue (NCSR 12) to be held in London, United Kingdom from Tuesday, May 13, 2025, to Thursday, May 22, 2025.

Members of the public may participate up to the capacity of the teleconference line, which will handle 500 participants through Microsoft Teams, or up to the seating capacity of the room if attending in-person.

The agenda items to be considered include:

- Adoption of the agenda
- Decisions of other IMO bodies
- Routeing measures and mandatory ship reporting systems
- Updates to the LRIT system
- Developments in GMDSS services, including guidelines on maritime safety information (MSI)
- Response to matters related to the ITU–R Study Groups and ITU World Radiocommunication Conference
- Development of global maritime SAR services, including harmonization of maritime and aeronautical procedures and amendments to the IAMSAR Manual
- Development of procedures and requirements for the recognition of augmentation systems in the Worldwide Radionavigation System
- Development of amendments to SOLAS chapters IV and V and performance standards and guidelines to introduce VHF Data Exchange System (VDES)
- Development of guidelines for software maintenance of shipboard navigation and communication equipment and systems
- Development of guidelines for EPIRB which implement the two-way communication service via the SAR/Galileo Return Link service as a complement to EPIRB performance standards
- Development of guidelines for the use of electronic nautical publications (ENP)
- Revision of the Performance Standards for Shipborne BeiDou Satellite Navigation System (BDS) Receiver Equipment
- Development of guidance to establish a framework for data distribution and global IP-based connectivity between shore-based facilities and ships for ECDIS S–100 products
- Validated model training courses
- Unified interpretation of provisions of IMO safety, security, environment, facilitation, liability and compensation-related conventions
- Biennial status report and provisional agenda for NCSR 13
- Election of Chair and Vice-Chair for 2026
- Any other business
- Report to the Maritime Safety Committee

Please note: The IMO may, on short notice, adjust the NCSR 12 agenda to accommodate any constraints associated with the meeting. Although no changes to the agenda are anticipated, if any are necessary, they will be provided to those who RSVP.

Those who plan to participate should contact the meeting coordinator, Mr. John Stone at John.M.Stone@uscg.mil (preferred), by phone at (206) 815–1355, or in writing at 2703 Martin Luther King Jr. Ave. SE, Stop 7418, Washington, DC 20593–7418 not later than April 23, 2025, 14 days prior to the meeting. Requests made after April 23, 2025, might not be able to be accommodated. The meeting coordinator will provide the teleconference and Microsoft Teams access information, facilitate the building security process, and requests for reasonable accommodation. Please note that due to security considerations, two valid, government issued photo identifications must be presented to gain entrance to the Douglas A. Munro Coast Guard Headquarters Building at St. Elizabeth’s. This building is accessible by taxi, public transportation, and privately owned conveyance (upon advanced request).

Additional information regarding this and other IMO public meetings may be found at: <https://www.dco.uscg.mil/IMO>.
