

FDA is also seeking data, research, information, and comments—not limited to the specific restrictions under consideration—related to the following:

- The impact and/or effect(s) of outdoor advertising restrictions on youth smoking behavior;
- The increased or decreased likelihood that persons exposed to outdoor advertising will start using tobacco products;
- The increased or decreased likelihood that persons exposed to outdoor advertising will continue to use tobacco products or will be less likely to stop using tobacco products;
- The impact of outdoor advertising restrictions based upon distance from schools in major metropolitan areas;
- The impact of outdoor advertising restrictions based upon distance from schools in rural, suburban, and urban areas and how the impact may differ in such areas;
- The impact of outdoor advertising restrictions based upon the size, type, or other characteristic of the advertisement;
- The impact of warnings included in promotional materials, including outdoor advertising;
- The impact of outdoor advertising restrictions on tobacco manufacturers or other sellers' ability to communicate with adult smokers;
- Restrictions on outdoor advertising that, either in addition to or instead of the specific restrictions under consideration, would advance the public health goal of protecting children and adolescents from the harms caused by tobacco use.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

The Native American Housing Assistance and Self-Determination Reauthorization Act of 2008 (Pub. L. 110-411, approved October 14, 2008) (NAHASDA Reauthorization) reauthorizes The Native American Housing Assistance and Self-Determination Act of 1996 (25 U.S.C.

4101 et seq.) (NAHASDA) through September 30, 2013, and makes a number of amendments to the statutory requirements governing the Indian Housing Block Grant Program (IHBG) and Title VI Loan Guarantee programs. For more information on the IHBG and Title VI of NAHASDA, please see the background section of the Notice of Negotiated Rulemaking Committee Meeting published on February 22, 2010 at (75 FR 7579). The NAHASDA Reauthorization amends section 106 of NAHASDA to provide that HUD shall initiate a negotiated rulemaking in order to implement aspects of the 2008 Reauthorization Act that require rulemaking. On January 5, 2010 (75 FR 423), HUD published a Federal Register notice announcing the final list of members of the negotiated rulemaking committee (the Native American Housing Assistance & Self-Determination Negotiated Rulemaking Committee). On February 22, 2010 (75 FR 7559), HUD published a Federal Register notice announcing the first meeting of the negotiated rulemaking committee.

II. Negotiated Rulemaking Committee Meeting

This document announces the second meeting of the Native American Housing Assistance & Self-Determination Negotiated Rulemaking Committee. The committee meeting will take place as described in the DATES and ADDRESSES sections of this document. The agenda planned for the meeting includes the discussion of protocols and the scope of the rulemaking process, as well as setting of future meetings. The meeting will be open to the public without advance registration. Public attendance may be limited to the space available. Members of the public may be allowed to make statements during the meeting, to the extent time permits, and to file written statements with the committee for its consideration. Written statements should be submitted to the address listed in the FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT section of this document.

Dated: March 12, 2010.

Sandra B. Henriquez,
Assistant Secretary for Public and Indian Housing.
