RIN 0790–AK82

Sexual Assault Prevention and Response Program Procedures

AGENCY: Office of the Secretary, DoD.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: This final rule removes the Department of Defense’s (DoD’s) duplicative regulation concerning the Sexual Assault Prevention and Response Program (SAPR) Procedures. On July 15, 2020, DoD published a single revised DoD-level SAPR Program rule, which finalized two previously published interim final rules. The revision deleted all guidance internal to DoD and incorporated from this part those policy provisions directly affecting DoD’s obligations to provide sexual assault prevention and response (SAPR) services to certain members of the public who are adult victims of sexual assault. Therefore, this part is now unnecessary and may be removed from the CFR.

DATES: This rule is effective on September 17, 2020.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Diana Rangoussis, Senior Policy Advisor, Sexual Assault Prevention and Response Office (SAPRO), (571)372–2648.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: DoD now has a single sexual assault prevention and response (SAPR) rule at 32 CFR part 103 (85 FR 42707–42724) that incorporates those policy provisions from 32 CFR part 105 that directly affect DoD’s obligations to provide SAPR services to certain members of the public who are adult victims of sexual assault. 32 CFR 103 will be the only part that outlines the Department’s obligations to provide SAPR services to certain members of the public. The content of 32 CFR part 105, “Sexual Assault Prevention and Response Program Procedures,” last updated on September 27, 2016 (81 FR 66427), is no longer required and can be removed.

It has been determined that publication of this CFR part removal for public comment is impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to public interest since it is based on the removal of policies and procedures that are now reflected in another CFR part, 32 CFR part 103, or are publicly available on the Department’s website. The Department’s internal policies and procedures are published in DoD Directive 6495.01, “Sexual Assault Prevention and Response (SAPR) Program” (last updated April 11, 2017, and available at <http://www.esd.whs.mil/Portals/54/Documents/DD/issuances/dodd/649501p.pdf>), and DoD Instruction 6495.02, “Sexual Assault Prevention and Response (SAPR) Program Procedures,” (last updated May 24, 2017, and available at <http://www.esd.whs.mil/Portals/54/Documents/DD/issuances/dodi/649502p.pdf>).

This rule is not significant under Executive Order (E.O.) 12866, “Regulatory Planning and Review.” Therefore, E.O. 13771, “Reducing Regulation and Controlling Regulatory Costs,” does not apply.

Defense Commissary Agency Privacy Act Program

AGENCY: Defense Commissary Agency, Defense Department (DoD).

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: This final rule removes DoD’s regulation concerning the Defense Commissary Agency Privacy Act Program. On April 11, 2019, the Department of Defense published a revised DoD-level Privacy Program rule, which implements the Privacy Act and establishes an agency-wide privacy program that serves as the single Privacy Program rule for the Department. That revised Privacy Program rule also includes all DoD component exemption rules. Therefore, this part is now unnecessary and should be removed from the CFR.

DATES: This rule is effective on September 17, 2020.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Ralph J. Tremaglio, Senior Agency Official for Privacy at 804–734–8000, Ext. 48116.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: DoD now has a single DoD-level Privacy Program rule at 32 CFR part 310 (84 FR 14728) that contains all the codified information required for the Department. The Defense Commissary Agency Privacy Act Program regulation at 32 CFR part 327, last updated on June 28, 2000 (65 FR 39806), is no longer required and can be removed.

It has been determined that publication of this CFR part removal for public comment is impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to public interest since it is based on the removal of policies and procedures that are either now reflected in another CFR part, 32 CFR part 310, or are publicly available on the Department’s website. The Defense Commissary Agency will publish any future internal policy implementing the Privacy Act in DeCA Directive 80–21, “Defense Commissary Agency Privacy Program,” April 15, 2010 (available at <https://onenet.commissaries.com/documents/browse-documents?documenttype=57>).

This rule is one of 20 separate DoD Component Privacy rules. With the finalization of the DoD-level Privacy rule at 32 CFR part 310, the Department is eliminating separate component
