III. Process and Deadline for Submitting Nominations

Any interested person or organization may nominate qualified individuals for possible service on the NAC/AEGL Committee in the area of expertise described above. Interested candidates may self-nominate. All nominations must be identified by name, occupation, organization, position, current business address, email address, and daytime telephone number, and must include:

(1) A resume detailing relevant experience and professional and educational qualifications of the nominee; and (2) a brief statement (one page or less) describing the nominee's interest in serving on the Committee. Submit all nominations to Paul S. Tobin, Designated Federal Officer (DFO), Office of Chemical Safety and Pollution Prevention, U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (MC: 7403M), 1200 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW., Washington, DC 20460. You may also submit the nomination by e-mail to: tobin.paul@epa.gov. To receive full consideration, nominations should include all of the information requested. Persons having questions about the nominations procedures should contact Paul S. Tobin (DFO) as indicated above in this notice. Nominations should be submitted in time to arrive no later than November 12, 2010.

Selection criteria to be used for panel membership include:

- a. Scientific and/or technical expertise, knowledge and experience (primary factors);
- b. Availability and willingness to serve;
- c. Absence of financial conflicts of interest;
- d. Absence of an appearance of a lack of impartiality;
- e. Skills working in advisory committees and panels, and
- f. Diversity of and balance among scientific expertise and viewpoints.

EPA will evaluate the absence of financial conflicts of interest through the "Confidential Financial Disclosure Form for Special Government Employees Serving on Federal Advisory Committees at the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency" (EPA Form 3110-48). This confidential form allows Government officials to determine whether there is a statutory conflict between that person's public responsibilities (which includes membership on an EPA Federal advisory committee) and private interests and activities, or the appearance of a lack of impartiality, as defined by Federal regulation. The form may be viewed and downloaded from the following URL address: <http://www.epo.gov/oppt/aeg1/pubs/ethics.htm>.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

Notice of Public Information Collection(s) Being Reviewed by the Federal Communications Commission, Comments Requested

October 1, 2010.

SUMMARY: The Federal Communications Commission, as part of its continuing effort to reduce paperwork burden invites the general public and other Federal agencies to take this opportunity to comment on the following information collection(s), as required by the Paperwork Reduction Act (PRA) of 1995, 44 U.S.C. 3501-3520. Comments are requested concerning: (a) Whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the Commission, including whether the information shall have practical utility; (b) the accuracy of the Commission's burden estimate; (c) ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information collected; (d) ways to minimize the burden of the collection of information on the respondents, including the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology, and (e) ways to further reduce the information collection burden on small business concerns with fewer than 25 employees.

The FCC may not conduct or sponsor a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid control number. No person shall be subject to any penalty for failing to comply with a collection of information subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act (PRA) that does not display a currently valid OMB control number.
