

SAFEGUARDS:

All individuals with access to the records covered by this system of records receive cyber security awareness training which covers the procedures for handling classified and Sensitive-but-Unclassified information, including personally identifiable information. Annual refresher training is mandatory. Individuals with access undergo a background security investigation. All paper records are maintained in secured filing cabinets or in restricted areas, access to which is limited to authorized personnel only. Access to electronic records is password-protected and under the supervision of the information owner. Access privileges reflect separation of duties and least privilege, and are only extended to those Department personnel who have a need for the records in the performance of their duties. Individuals who are authorized to examine detailed information about the network and system usage of specific users are assigned privileged system accounts for that purpose. When it is determined that an individual no longer requires access, his or her account is disabled.

RETENTION AND DISPOSAL:

See National Archives and Records Administration General Records Schedule 20.1 (Files/Records Relating to the Creation, Use, and Maintenance of Computer Systems, Applications, or Electronic Records) and 24.6 (User Identification, Profiles, Authorizations, and Password Files). Records are deleted when no longer needed for administrative, legal, audit, or other operational purposes.

SYSTEM MANAGER AND ADDRESS:

Chief Information Officer, Department of State, 2201 C Street, NW., Washington, DC 20520.

NOTIFICATION PROCEDURES:

Individuals who have reason to believe that this system of records may contain information pertaining to them may write the Director, Office of Information Programs and Services, Department of State, SA-2, 515 22nd Street, NW., Washington, DC 20522-8001. At a minimum, the individual should include the name of this system of records; their name, current mailing address, zip code, and signature; and a brief description of the circumstances that caused the individual to believe that the system of records contains records pertaining to them, including the specific geographic locations, overseas missions, or individual offices in which the individual believes he or she may have accessed or is believed to have accessed the Department's computer systems.

RECORD ACCESS AND AMENDMENT PROCEDURES:

Individuals who wish to gain access to or amend records pertaining to them should write to the Director, Office of Information Programs and Services, Department of State, SA-2, 515 22nd Street, NW., Washington, DC 20522-8001.

RECORD SOURCE CATEGORIES:

Individuals about whom the record is maintained; information systems, applications, and services within a Department network that record usage by individuals assigned a user account on that network.

EXEMPTIONS CLAIMED FOR THE SYSTEM:

None.
