II. Background

The process for designating areas following promulgation of a new or revised NAAQS is contained in Clean Air Act (CAA) Section 107(d) (42 U.S.C. 7407). Following the promulgation of a new or revised standard, each Governor or Tribal Leader has an opportunity to recommend air quality designations, including the appropriate boundaries for nonattainment areas, to EPA. EPA considers these recommendations as part of its duty to promulgate the formal area designations and boundaries for the new or revised standards. By no later than 120 days prior to promulgating designations, EPA is required to notify states or tribes of any intended modification to an area designation or boundary recommendation that EPA deems necessary. On or about June 15, 2010, EPA notified states and tribes of its intended area designations for the 2008 Pb NAAQS. (Go to Section III of this notice for information relating to accessing EPA's designation recommendations.) States and tribes now have an opportunity to demonstrate why they believe a modification proposed by EPA may be inappropriate. In these responses, EPA has encouraged states and tribes to provide comments and additional information for consideration by EPA in finalizing designations. EPA plans to make final designation determinations for the 2008 Pb NAAQS by October 15, 2010.

The purpose of this notice is to solicit public comments from interested parties other than states and tribes on EPA's recent responses to the state and tribal designation recommendations for the 2008 Pb NAAQS. CAA Section 107(d) provides a process for designations that involves recommendations by states and tribes to EPA and responses from EPA to those parties, prior to EPA promulgating final designations and boundaries. EPA is not required under CAA Section 107(d) to seek public comment during the designation process, but is electing to do so for the 2008 Pb NAAQS in order to gather additional information for EPA to consider before making final designations. EPA invites public comment on its responses to states and tribes during the 30-day comment period provided in this notice. Due to the statutory timeframe for promulgating designations set out in CAA Section 107(d), EPA will not be able to consider any comments submitted after August 16, 2010, notwithstanding what may have appeared in any state-specific announcements. This notice and opportunity for public comment does not affect any rights or obligations of any state, tribe or the EPA which might otherwise exist pursuant to CAA Section 107(d).¹

Please refer to the ADDRESSES section above in this document for specific instructions on submitting comments and locating relevant public documents.

In providing comments to EPA please consider the agency's charge under CAA section 107(d). Under this section, EPA is obligated to identify every area as attainment, nonattainment, or unclassifiable. Further, in establishing nonattainment area boundaries, the agency is required to identify the area that does not meet the 2008 Pb standard and any nearby area that is contributing to the area that does not meet that standard. We are particularly interested in receiving comments, supported by relevant information, if you believe that a specific geographic area that EPA is proposing to identify as a nonattainment area should not be categorized by the section 107(d) criteria as nonattainment, or if you believe that a specific area not proposed by EPA to be identified as a nonattainment area should in fact be categorized as nonattainment using the section 107(d) criteria. Please be as specific as possible in supporting your views.

- Describe any assumptions and provide any technical information and/or data that you used.
- Provide specific examples to illustrate your concerns, and suggest alternatives.
- Explain your views as clearly as possible, avoiding the use of profanity or personal threats.
- Make sure to submit your comments by the comment period deadline identified.

III. Internet Web Site for EPA's State and Tribal Designations Recommendations and Rulemaking Information

The EPA has also established a Web Site for this rulemaking at <http://www.epa.gov/lead/designations>. The Web Site includes EPA's state and tribal designation recommendations, information supporting EPA's preliminary designation decisions, as well as the rulemaking actions and other related information that the public may find useful.

As part of the Commission's Broadband Plan, the FCC has created the Spectrum Dashboard, a database of the frequency bands from 225 MHz – 3.7 GHz available for non-federal uses, including for broadband deployment across the nation. The Spectrum Dashboard also makes information transparent and readily available to interested stakeholders (e.g., service providers, manufacturers, innovators, investors, etc.) to better enable them to gain access to spectrum and to help them assist the Commission in our spectrum policy decisions. The increased accessibility to spectrum and licensing information made possible by the Spectrum Dashboard is particularly valuable at this time as multiple stakeholders search for ways to participate in the deployment of wireless broadband throughout the nation.

The purpose of this collection is to enable individuals and others to voluntarily provide feedback on their experience with the Spectrum Dashboard. This collection will provide the Commission with unique data on how stakeholders are using the Spectrum Dashboard database and what improvements or enhancements they would like to see in future versions of the Spectrum Dashboard.
