SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Abstract

Collection of estuary habitat restoration project information (e.g., location, habitat type, goals, status, monitoring information) will be undertaken in order to populate a restoration project database mandated by the Estuary Restoration Act (ERA) of 2000. The Estuary Restoration Act Database is to contain information for estuary habitat restoration projects funded through the ERA as well as non-ERA project data that meet quality control requirements and data standards established under the Act. The database is intended to provide information to improve restoration methods, provide the basis for required reports to Congress, and track estuary habitat acreage restored. It will be accessible to the public via Internet for data queries and project reports. Recipients of ERA funds will be required to submit specific information on habitat restoration projects into the ERA Database through an interactive Web site available over the Internet. Projects that are not funded through the ERA can be voluntarily entered into the database by project managers. Other federal agency and private grant programs may also require recipients to enter project information in the ERA database.

II. Method of Collection

Project managers will electronically submit estuary restoration project information via NOAA's Estuary Restoration Act Database Web site. The Web site will contain a user-friendly data entry interface for project managers to enter and submit project information to the ERA database. The data entry interface will consist of a series of screens, containing several pull-down menus and text boxes, where users can enter specific project information (e.g. location, acreage restored, contacts, monitoring information). To facilitate the collection of information through the data entry interface, NOAA Fisheries will provide worksheets containing database fields that can be downloaded and printed from the Web site. These worksheets can be used by project managers to guide information collection, and can then serve as a reference as project managers enter project information over the Web site. The reporting forms will also be available in paper format to be sent to project managers as necessary.

The collection of estuary habitat restoration project information will be undertaken in a multi-phased approach. Project information will first be obtained from existing federal databases, and later from other existing state and regional databases. For projects funded through the Estuary Restoration Act, project managers will be required to enter project information into the database as part of their funding agreement. Submission of project information to the ERA Database may also be required by other public and private restoration financial assistance programs. For other projects implemented by not-for-profit institutions (primary), state, local, tribal governments, businesses and other for-profit organizations, project information can be entered into the database on a voluntary basis. Since database information will be provided by a wide range of respondents, data will be reviewed using a detailed quality assurance/quality control (QA/QC) program prior to being made available to the public. This QA/QC process will also ensure compliance with the Data Quality Act (Section 515). Projects entered into the ERA Database can be updated as new information is obtained but must be updated at least annually for use in database queries and reports.
