Robert Copyak, AD/CVD Operations, Office 3, Import Administration, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 14th Street and Constitution Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20230; telephone 202-482-2209.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On July 2, 2009, the Department of Commerce (the Department) initiated the countervailing duty investigation of wire decking from the People's Republic of China. See Wire Decking From the People's Republic of China: Initiation of Countervailing Duty Investigation, 74 FR 31700 (July 2, 2009).

Postponement of Due Date for Preliminary Determination

Section 703(b)(1) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (the Act), requires the Department to issue the preliminary determination in a countervailing duty investigation within 65 days after the date on which the Department initiated the investigation. However, the Department may postpone making the preliminary determination until no later than 130 days after the date on which the administering authority initiated the investigation if, pursuant to section 703(c)(1)(B) of the Act, the Department concludes that the parties concerned in the investigation are cooperating and determines that the investigation is extraordinarily complicated and that "additional time is necessary to make the preliminary determination."

The Department is currently investigating a number of complex alleged subsidy programs, including various loan programs, grants, income tax incentives, and the provision of goods and services for less than adequate remuneration. Due to the number and complexity of the alleged subsidy programs being investigated, we find that this investigation is extraordinarily complicated and that additional time is necessary to make the preliminary determination. Therefore, in accordance with section 703(c)(1)(B) of the Act, we are fully extending the due date for the preliminary determination to no later than 130 days after the day on which the investigation was initiated. The deadline for completion of the preliminary determination is now November 2, 2009.

This notice is issued and published pursuant to section 703(c)(2) of the Act.

Dated: August 7, 2009.

Ronald K. Lorentzen,

Acting Assistant Secretary for Import Administration.
