General description of report: The Electronic Fund Transfer Act (EFTA) requires consumers be provided meaningful disclosures about the basic terms, costs, and rights relating to electronic fund transfer (EFT) services involving a consumer's account. The disclosures required by the EFTA are triggered by specific events. The disclosures inform consumers, for example, about the terms of the EFT service, activity on the account, potential liability for unauthorized transfers, and the process for resolving errors.

Legal authorization and confidentiality: The FR E is authorized pursuant to section 904 of the EFTA,¹ which requires that the CFPB prescribe regulations to carry out the purposes of the EFTA, including disclosure and recordkeeping requirements relating to consumer EFT transactions. The FR E is mandatory.

The disclosures and records required under Regulation E are not required to be submitted to the Board, so normally no confidentiality issues would be implicated. To the extent such disclosures and records are obtained by the Board through the examination process, they may be kept confidential under exemption 8 of the Freedom of Information Act, which protects information contained in or related to an examination of a financial institution.²

General description of collection: Regulation G—Disclosure and Reporting of CRA-Related Agreements¹ implements section 711 of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act (GLBA),² which requires IDIs, affiliates of IDIs, and NGEFs to disclose written agreements entered into in connection with fulfillment of the CRA.³

Legal authorization and confidentiality: The disclosure and reporting requirements of Regulation G are authorized pursuant to the Board's authority to prescribe regulations to carry out the purposes of section 711 of GLBA.⁴ The FR G disclosure and reporting requirements are mandatory.

The disclosure and reporting requirements of section 711 and Regulation G require relevant parties to disclose covered agreements to the public.⁵ However, as explained in the preamble to Regulation G, an entity subject to Regulation G may submit separate public and complete versions of its covered agreements to the Board with a request for confidential treatment for the complete version.⁶ As stated in the preamble, the Board would release only the public version unless it received a request under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) for the entirety of the CRA-related agreement.⁷

Regulation G states that in responding to a request for a covered agreement from an individual or entity under the public disclosure provisions of section 711, an NGEF, insured depository institution, or affiliate may withhold from the public information that the party believes the relevant supervisory agency could withhold from disclosure under the FOIA.⁸ Information contained in covered agreements may be exempt from disclosure under exemption 4 of the FOIA, which protects nonpublic commercial or financial information, which is both customarily and actually treated as private by the respondent.⁹ Information contained in covered agreements may also be exempt from disclosure under exemption 6 of the FOIA, which protects information about individuals in personnel and medical files the disclosure of which “would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy,”¹⁰ and under exemption 8 of the FOIA, which protects information contained in “examination, operating, or condition reports” obtained in the bank supervisory process.¹¹

Current actions: On July 26, 2022, the Board published an initial notice in the Federal Register (87 FR 44392) requesting public comment for 60 days on the extension, without revision, of the FR G. The comment period for this notice expired on September 26, 2022. The Board did not receive any comments.
