

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATIONPresident's Advisory 1776 Commission

AGENCY: Office of Communications and Outreach, U.S. Department of Education.

ACTION: Announcement of an open meeting.

SUMMARY: This notice sets forth the agenda, time, and instructions for public participation in the January 15, 2021, meeting of the President's Advisory 1776 Commission ("The 1776 Commission") and provides information to members of the public regarding the meeting. Notice of this meeting is required under Section 10(a)(2) of the Federal Advisory Committee Act (FACA). This notice is being published less than 15 days from the meeting date due to the exceptional and immediate need to establish next steps for the work of The 1776 Commission in light of ongoing attacks on the American founding and critical discussion around the nation's core principles for further enjoyment of liberty and striving "to form a more perfect Union."

DATES: The meeting of The 1776 Commission will be held on Friday, January 15, 2021, from 1:00 p.m. to 2:00 p.m. Eastern Standard Time at the Eisenhower Executive Office Building, 1650 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20502. Members of the public can attend virtually.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Adam Honeysett, Designated Federal Official, Office of Communications and Outreach, U.S. Department of Education, 400 Maryland Avenue SW, Room 7W220, Washington, DC 20202, telephone: (202) 401-3003 or email: Adam.Honeysett@ed.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The 1776 Commission's Statutory Authority and Function: The 1776 Commission is established under Executive Order 13958 (November 2, 2020). The 1776 Commission's duties are to advise the President regarding how to better enable a rising generation to understand the history and principles of the founding of the United States in 1776 and to strive to form a more perfect Union by: (i) Producing a report, within 1 year of the date of Executive Order 13958, which shall be publicly disseminated, regarding the core principles of the American founding and how these principles may be understood to further enjoyment of "the blessings of liberty" and to promote our striving "to form a more perfect Union;" (ii) offering recommendations regarding the Federal Government's plans to celebrate the 250th anniversary of American Independence and coordinating with relevant external stakeholders on the United States Semiquincentennial Commission's plans; (iii) facilitating the development and implementation of a "Presidential 1776 Award" to recognize student knowledge of the American founding, including knowledge about the Founders, the Declaration of Independence, the Constitutional Convention, and the great soldiers and battles of the American Revolutionary War; (iv) advising executive departments and agencies with regard to their efforts to ensure patriotic education—meaning the presentation of the history of the American founding and foundational principles, the examination of how the United States has grown closer to those principles throughout its history, and the explanation of why commitment to America's aspirations is beneficial and justified—and provide such education to the public at national parks, battlefields, monuments, museums, installations, landmarks, cemeteries, and other places important to the American Revolution and the American founding, as appropriate and consistent with applicable law; (v) advising agencies on prioritizing the American founding in Federal grants and initiatives, including those described in section 4 of Executive Order 13958, as appropriate and consistent with applicable law; and (vi) facilitating and promoting other activities to support public knowledge and patriotic education on the American Revolution and the American founding, as appropriate and consistent with applicable law.

Meeting Agenda: The agenda for The 1776 Commission meeting is consideration of a possible report as called for under its charter.

Instructions for Accessing the Meeting
