BILLING CODE 4410-15-M

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

[AAG/A Order No. 265-2002]

Privacy Act of 1974; System of Records

Pursuant to the Privacy Act of 1974 (5 U.S.C. 552a), notice is given that the Federal Bureau of Prisons (Bureau) proposes to modify its system of records entitled "Inmate Central Records System, JUSTICE/BOP-005". The system notice, which was last published on June 7, 1984 (49 FR 23711), is now being modified and will become effective 60 days from the date of publication.

As previously published, the system included only those persons who were committed to the custody of the Attorney General and thereby to the Bureau of Prisons under 18 U.S.C. 4003, 4042 and 4082. The Bureau is modifying the system to include all additional individuals who are directly committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons, pursuant to the additional authority of 18 U.S.C. 3621 and 5003 (state inmates), and inmates from the District of Columbia pursuant to section 11201 of Chapter 1 of Subtitle C of Title XI of the National Capital Revitalization and Self-Government Improvement Act of 1997 (Pub. L. 105-33; 111 Stat. 740).

In addition to edits which have been made to better describe the system and/or improve its clarity, the Bureau has added a statement on the purpose of this system and expanded the list of records contained in this system to include "drug testing and DNA samples and analysis records." Also, the routine use section has been reorganized to better describe or clarify certain routine uses. New routine uses have been added to allow for the release of information to courts and administrative forums and to prevent immediate loss of life or serious bodily injury. In addition, an existing routine use has been modified to include the General Services Administration (GSA) as a potential recipient of records access during records management inspections. This modification is consistent with Public Law 98-497 (44 U.S.C. 2102) which renamed the National Archives and Records Service as the "National Archives and Records Administration (NARA)" and established it as a separate agency which would continue to share its records management inspection responsibilities with GSA. Accordingly, the routine use has been changed to show that while NARA and GSA are separate agencies, they have retained shared responsibilities for records management inspections under the authority of 44 U.S.C. 2904 and 2906.

Appropriate sections have been revised to reflect technological advances and new agency practices regarding the storage, retrieval, access, retention and disposal of records in the system. The Bureau has re-designated the system manager and also clarified record access procedures.

The exemptions from certain Privacy Act provisions continue, as previously published in 28 CFR 16.97(a) and (b). Exemptions from (e)(1) and (e)(5) have been added for law enforcement purposes.

Title 5 U.S.C. 552a (e)(4) and (11) provide that the public be given a 30-day period in which to comment; and the Office of Management and Budget (OMB), which has oversight responsibilities under the Privacy Act, requires that it be given a 40-day period in which to review the system. Therefore, please submit any comments by June 10, 2002. The public, OMB, and the Congress are invited to send written comments to Mary Cahill, Management and Planning Staff, Justice Management Division, Department of Justice, Washington, DC 20530 (1400 National Place Building).

In accordance with 5 U.S.C. 552a(r), the Department has provided a report to OMB and the Congress on the proposed modification. A description of the modified system is provided below.
