DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

[CPCLO Order No. 01-2025]

Privacy Act of 1974; Systems of Records

AGENCY: Executive Office for Immigration Review, United States Department of Justice.

ACTION: Notice of a modified system of records.

SUMMARY: Pursuant to the Privacy Act of 1974 and Office of Management and Budget (OMB) Circular No. A-108, notice is hereby given that the Executive Office for Immigration Review (EOIR), a component within the United States Department of Justice (DOJ or Department), proposes to modify a system of records notice titled Roster of Organizations and their Accredited Representatives Recognized by the Board of Immigration Appeals, JUSTICE/BIA-002. In 2016, EOIR issued a final rule amending the regulations governing the requirements and procedures for the recognition of organizations and the accreditation of those organizations' representatives to represent persons in proceedings before EOIR and the Department of Homeland Security (DHS). Those regulatory amendments transferred the administration of the Recognition and Accreditation (R&A) Program within EOIR from the Board of Immigration Appeals (Board) to the Office of Legal Access Programs (OLAP). In 2019, the R&A Program was transferred by regulation to the Office of Policy (OP), the part of EOIR that oversees OLAP. EOIR proposes to modify JUSTICE/BIA-002 and to change the system number to JUSTICE/EOIR-004 to reflect the transfer of the R&A Program to OP. The last publication of the complete system of records notice was in 1980, prior to the issuance of OMB A-108. As such, EOIR is re-publishing the System of Records Notice for this system, in full. Additionally, the agency's Access EOIR initiative gave rise to the modernization of the Recognition and Accreditation Program application process through the development of the Recognition and Accreditation Access (RAA) system allowing prospective applicants to apply online for recognition or accreditation and online account management of an approved organization. Modified JUSTICE/EOIR–004 captures this modernization effort.

DATES: In accordance with 5 U.S.C. 552a(e)(4) and (11), this notice is applicable upon publication, subject to a 30-day period in which to comment on the routine uses, described below. Therefore, please submit any comments by May 19, 2025.

ADDRESSES: The public, OMB, and Congress are invited to submit any comments: by mail to the United States Department of Justice, Office of Privacy and Civil Liberties, ATTN: Privacy Analyst, Two Constitution Square, 145 N St. NE, Suite 8W–300, Washington, DC 20530; by facsimile at 202–307–0693; or by email at privacy.compliance@usdoj.gov. To ensure proper handling, please reference the above CPCLO Order No. on your correspondence.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Alexander Y. Hartman, Senior Associate General Counsel and Senior Component Official for Privacy, Office of the General Counsel; Executive Office for Immigration Review, 5107 Leesburg Pike, Suite 2600, Falls Church, VA 22041, telephone: (703) 305–0470; EOIR.Privacy.Intake@usdoj.gov; Sarah Flinn, Acting Assistant Director, Office of Policy, Executive Office for Immigration Review, 5107 Leesburg Pike, Suite 2500, Falls Church, VA 22041, telephone: (703) 305–0289; sarah.m.flinn@usdoj.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The DOJ is modifying this system of records, Recognition and Accreditation Program Records, JUSTICE/EOIR–004, as a replacement for the prior system of records, entitled Roster of Organizations and Their Accredited Representatives Recognized by the Board of Immigration Appeals, JUSTICE/BIA–002, (45 FR 75908), rescinded on March 31, 2025, in part because the Board is no longer responsible for overseeing and maintaining the R&A Program and in part due to the modernization of the R&A Program permitting an online application process and online account management for an approved organization through the RAA system. Established pursuant to 8 CFR 1292.1(a)(4), the R&A Program aims to increase the availability of competent legal immigration representation for low-income and indigent aliens by recognizing non-profit, federally tax-exempt organizations and accrediting their non-attorney representatives. The R&A Program recognizes eligible organizations to provide representation through non-attorney Accredited Representatives who appear on behalf of clients before the Immigration Courts, the Board, and DHS, or DHS alone. 8 CFR 1292.11. Each organization must designate an Authorized Officer to act on behalf of the organization in recognition and accreditation matters. Id. Pursuant to 8 CFR 1292.11–.13, OP is presently responsible for recognizing organizations and accrediting their representatives. OP maintains the system of records, which consists of (1) a roster of non-profit religious, charitable, social service, and similar organizations and their Accredited Representatives; (2) applications and related documents submitted by such organizations for recognition and accreditation; (3) documents generated by OP in the course of reviewing such applications, including determinations approving or disapproving recognition and accreditation requests as well as determinations terminating recognition or accreditation status; and (4) documents obtained by OP from external sources in the course of reviewing such applications, including recommendations from EOIR’s Office of Security, recommendations or complaints received from U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS), as well as complaints received from the public about specific organizations or representatives. On January 18, 2017, control of the R&A Program and its attendant responsibilities of recognizing organizations and accrediting their representatives was transferred from the Board to OLAP. See 81 FR 92346 (Dec. 19, 2016). In 2019, such control transferred from OLAP to OP. See 84 FR 44537 (Aug. 26, 2019). Accordingly, the relevant records in the Board system of records have been transferred to OP.

In furtherance of the agency’s Access EOIR initiative, OP is instituting an updated and streamlined electronic management and storage system for R&A Program records. The new system will improve efficiencies, accountability, and accuracy in OP’s review of applications for recognition and accreditation and for the management of the R&A Program. The system is a full-scope computer-based program that will fully automate the R&A Program application process. Internally, the system will shift all processing of the R&A Program applications to the automated system, which will include processes that will require the verification of the presence and sufficiency of all documentation necessary to demonstrate an applicant’s or organization’s eligibility for admittance into the Program. Externally through the RAA system, the system will allow applicants and organizations to fully submit all applications for recognition and accreditation electronically. On behalf of DHS, USCIS will have the ability to upload, save, edit, digitally sign, and submit documents online through the system, as well as view application documents received by EOIR. See <https://getaccredited.eoir.justice.gov/login>. Pursuant to the regulations, recognition and accreditation applications must be served on USCIS, and USCIS is afforded an opportunity to comment on the application prior to EOIR’s final determination. See 8 CFR 1292.13 et seq. Lastly, OP will have the ability to issue determinations through the system, send and receive notifications and periodic reminders, and run reports based on data in the system’s different data fields.

In accordance with 5 U.S.C. 552a(r), the Department has provided a report to OMB and Congress on this notice of a modified system of records.

Dated: March 31, 2025.

Peter Winn,

Acting Chief Privacy and Civil Liberties Officer, United States Department of Justice.

POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR STORAGE OF RECORDS:

OP currently stores all relevant information from applications and supporting documents in a mail log, a tracking log, and a new electronic management and storage system that tracks the status, history, and complete lifecycle of each application OP receives. The system also produces reports, collectively called the R&A Rosters, which are lists of all currently approved Recognized Organizations and Accredited Representatives.

Applications for recognition and accreditation may be made using the fillable portable document files (pdfs) available on EOIR's website and submitted with the necessary supporting documentation by regular mail or email to the R&A Program. Applicants will also be able to use the new system to submit applications electronically through the public facing web-based application RAA system located at <https://getaccredited.eoir.justice.gov/login>. Documents received by regular mail are scanned and uploaded to the system. The new system will allow OP to import data from the network drive, index, and format the documents for optimal character recognition, making the information and documentation available in the system in a searchable electronic format. The capability will include input of data and metadata to aid searching the documents.

OP also receives physical and electronic correspondence from USCIS and members of the public regarding organizations and representatives. That correspondence is also logged in the R&A Program's electronic system. The new electronic system will allow USCIS to submit and store correspondence for use through the RAA system located at <https://getaccredited.eoir.justice.gov/login>.

POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR RETRIEVAL OF RECORDS:

Authorized internal users may retrieve paper records by the name of the organization that submitted an application or by a unique tracking number internally assigned by the R&A Program to the particular organization for purposes of file organization and record keeping. Authorized internal users may retrieve electronic records by the name of the organization that submitted an application, the R&A case number assigned to each organization application, or the name of the person on whose behalf an accreditation application was submitted.
