

the Privacy Act of 1974. EAP records are located at various DOJ-operated and contractor-operated facilities, and you may make your request by writing directly to the Privacy Act Office of the component that maintains your EAP records. The appropriate address to use, and any additional requirements for submitting a request to a given component, are listed in Appendix I of 28 CFR part 16. Further details are provided in Attachment B of the Department's FOIA Reference Guide, available on the Department's Web site here: http://www.justice.gov/oip/04_3.html. If you cannot determine where within the Department to send your request, you may send it to the FOIA/PA Mail Referral Unit, Justice Management Division, U.S. Department of Justice, Room 115, LOC Building, Washington, DC 20530-0001, and the Mail Referral Unit will forward your request to the component(s) that it determines to be most likely to maintain your records.

For the quickest possible handling, both the request letter and the envelope should be marked "Privacy Act Request." The request should include a description of the records sought and must include sufficient information to verify your identity, including your full name, current address, and date and place of birth. You must sign and date your request, and your signature must either be notarized or submitted under 28 U.S.C. 1746, a law that permits statements to be made under penalty of perjury as a substitute for notarization. (While no specific form is required, you may obtain a form (Form DOJ-361) for use in certification of your identity from the FOIA/PA Mail Referral Unit at the address listed above, or on the Department's Web site at http://www.justice.gov/oip/forms/cert_ind.pdf.) If you desire to request amendment or correction of information maintained in your records, you should also comply with the additional provisions in Contesting Record Procedures, below.

CONTESTING RECORD PROCEDURES:

If you desire to contest and request amendment or correction of information about you maintained in the system, please follow the Record Access Procedures, above. In addition, you should also comply with the provisions of 28 CFR 16.46, which include requirements that you identify each particular record in question and state clearly and concisely what information is being contested, the reasons for contesting it, and the proposed amendment or correction that you want.

RECORD SOURCE CATEGORIES:

Records are generated by EAP personnel, the EAP client who is the subject of the record, the personnel office, employee relations/labor relations counsel, the EAP client's supervisor, the EAP client's co-workers, employee bargaining units, EAP contractors, referral counseling and treatment programs or individuals, and other outside sources. In the case of drug abuse counseling, records may also be generated by the staff of the Drug-Free Workplace Program and the medical review officer.

EXEMPTIONS CLAIMED FOR THE SYSTEM:

None.
