SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:*Background

The Codex Alimentarius Commission (Codex) was established in 1963 by two United Nations organizations, the Food and Agriculture Organization (FAO) and the World Health Organization (WHO). Through adoption of food standards, codes of practice, and other guidelines developed by its committees, and by promoting their implementation by governments, Codex seeks to protect the health of consumers and ensure fair practices in food trade; and promote coordination of all food standards work undertaken by international governmental and non-governmental organizations. The CAC will finalize standards developed in Codex Committees, and publish them in a Codex Alimentarius either as regional or worldwide standards.

Issues To Be Discussed at the Public Meeting

The following items on the agenda for the 33rd Session of the CAC will be discussed during the public meeting:

- Amendments to the Codex Procedural Manual
- Draft Standards and Related Texts Submitted to the Commission for Adoption
- Proposed Draft Standards and Related Texts Submitted at Step 5
- Existing Codex Standards and Related Texts whose Revocation is Recommended
- Proposals for the Elaboration of New Standards and Related Texts
- Financial and Budgetary Matters
- Strategic Planning of the Codex Alimentarius Commission
- General Matters Arising from the Reports of Codex Committees and Task Forces
- FAO/WHO Project and Trust Fund for Enhanced Participation in Codex

Each issue on the CAC agenda will be described in documents distributed by the Secretariat prior to the meeting. Members of the public may access
