SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Chief Evaluation Office of the DOL has commissioned an evaluation of the Transition Assistance Program Employment Navigator and Partnership Pilot (TAP ENPP, or ENPP). By establishing the ENPP, DOL aims to provide individualized career counseling and guidance to transitioning service members (TSMs) and military spouses. Under the ENPP model, Employment Navigators will provide individualized career services including self-assessment, interest and aptitude testing, career exploration, and detailed labor market information (referred to as the Assist-Explore-Plan [AEP] model) as well as warm handovers and connections to governmental and nongovernmental partners for additional services. ICF has been contracted by CEO to conduct a formative evaluation of this 12-month pilot program. For additional substantive information about this ICR, see the related notice published in the Federal Register on May 19, 2021 (86 FR 27114).

This information collection is subject to the PRA. A Federal agency generally cannot conduct or sponsor a collection of information, and the public is generally not required to respond to an information collection, unless the OMB approves it and displays a currently valid OMB Control Number. In addition, notwithstanding any other provisions of law, no person shall generally be subject to penalty for failing to comply with a collection of information that does not display a valid OMB Control Number. See 5 CFR 1320.5(a) and 1320.6.

DOL seeks PRA authorization for this information collection for three (3) years. OMB authorization for an ICR cannot be for more than three (3) years without renewal. The DOL notes that information collection requirements submitted to the OMB for existing ICRs receive a month-to-month extension while they undergo review.
