Office of the Secretary

Submission for OMB Review: Comment Request

September 26, 2008.

The Department of Labor (DOL) hereby announces the submission of the following public information collection request (ICR) to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) for review and approval in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (Pub. L. 104-13, 44 U.S.C. chapter 35). A copy of this ICR, with applicable supporting documentation, including among other things a description of the likely respondents, proposed frequency

Respondent does not argue that the statute is unconstitutional. Nor could it, as the Supreme Court has repeatedly upheld the use of post-deprivation process in emergency situations. See, e.g., Gilbert v. Homar, 520 U.S. 924 (1997). Moreover, in this case, the evidence of Respondent's continued large sales of listed chemical products, even after being served with the first Show Cause Order, supports the finding that Respondent's continued registration during the pendency of the proceeding posed an imminent danger to public health and safety. Respondent could also have sought review of the suspension in a "court of competent jurisdiction." 21 U.S.C. 824(d).

Finally, Respondent asserts that "the effect of the DEA's arbitrary actions [in its] case [is] to discriminate against him because he is a legal alien" in violation of his right to equal protection of the laws. Resp. Prop. Findings at 25. Respondent does not, however, contend that the Agency is intentionally discriminating against its owner, see Hernandez v. New York, 500 U.S. 352, 359-60 (1991), a requirement for stating a claim under the Equal Protection Clause, and in any event, it has produced no evidence to support its claim. Respondent is just one of many list I chemical distributors whose registrations have been revoked for committing acts inconsistent with the public interest.

PeopLoungers, Inc., Nettleton, MS, and PeopLoungers, Inc., Mantachie, MS; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273), and Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974 (26 U.S.C. 2813), as amended, the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance on April 2, 2008, applicable to workers of PeopLoungers, Inc., Nettleton, Mississippi. The notice was published in the Federal Register on April 17, 2008 (73 FR 20954).

At the request of a company official, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers are engaged in the production of furniture.

New information provided by the company official shows that after the worker group was certified eligible to apply for adjustment assistance, the subject firm relocated remaining workers and production from Nettleton, Mississippi to Mantachie, Mississippi.

Based on this finding, the Department is amending the certification to include workers separated from the Mantachie, Mississippi location of PeopLoungers, Inc.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-62,583 is hereby issued as follows:

"All workers of Peoploungers, Inc., Nettleton, Mississippi (TA-W-62,583) and PeopLoungers, Inc., Mantachie, Mississippi who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after December 18, 2006, through April 4, 2010, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, and are also eligible to apply for alternative trade adjustment assistance under Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974."

Signed in Washington, DC, this 23rd day of September 2008.

Elliott S. Kushner,

Certifying Officer, Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

Avaya, Inc., Unified Communications Division, Information Solutions Organization, Westminster, CO, Including Employees of Avaya, Inc., Unified Communications Division, Information Solutions Organization Westminster, CO, Working in Milpitas, CA; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273), and Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974 (26 U.S.C. 2813), as amended, the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance on May 15, 2008, applicable to workers of Avaya, Inc., Unified Communications Division, Information Solutions Organization, Westminster, Colorado. The notice was published in the Federal Register on May 29, 2008 (73 FR 30977).

At the request of the State agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers are engaged in the production of master technical manuals, other information products and localized software.

New information shows that worker separations have occurred involving employees working in support of the Westminster, Colorado facility of the subject firm located in Milpitas, California. Ms. Jennifer Allen and Ms.

Shirley Tsang provided a variety of services supporting the production of master technical manuals, other information products and localized software at the Westminster, Colorado location of the subject firm. The Department has determined that Ms. Jennifer Allen and Ms. Shirley Tsang were sufficiently under the control of the Westminster, Colorado location to be covered under this certification.

Based on these findings, the Department is amending this certification to include employees in support of the firm's Westminster, Colorado facility located in Milpitas, California.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Avaya, Inc., Unified Communications Division, Information Solutions Organization, Westminster, Colorado who were adversely affected by increased imports following a shift in production to India and Czech Republic.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-63,236 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Avaya, Inc., Unified Communications Division, Information Solutions Organization, Westminster, Colorado (TA-W-63,236) including employees in support of Avaya, Inc., Unified Communications Division, Information Solutions Organization, Westminster, Colorado located in Milpitas, California (TA-W-63,236A), who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after April 22, 2007, through May 15, 2010, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, and are also eligible to apply for alternative trade adjustment assistance under Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 23rd day of September 2008.

Kimble Chase Life Science & Research Products LLC, Formerly Known as Kimble Kontes, Vineland, NJ; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273), and Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974 (26

U.S.C. 2813), as amended, the Department of Labor issued a Certification Regarding Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance on June 16, 2008, applicable to workers of Kimble Chase, LLC, Vineland, New Jersey. The notice was published in the Federal Register on July 14, 2008 (73 FR 40388).

At the request of the State agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers are engaged in the production of glassware for scientific use.

New information shows the complete name of the subject firm should read Kimble Chase Life Science & Research Products LLC. Information also shows that before July 1, 2007, the subject firm was formerly known as Kimble Kontes. Some of the workers wages at the subject firm are being reported under a separate Unemployment Insurance (UI) tax account for Kimble Chase Life Science & Research Products LLC, formerly known as Kimble Kontes.

Accordingly, the Department is amending this certification to properly reflect these matters.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Kimble Chase Life Science & Research Products LLC, formerly known as Kimble Kontes who were adversely affected by increased imports following a shift in production to Mexico.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-63,421 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Kimble Chase Life Science & Research Products LLC, formerly known as Kimble Kontes, Vineland, New Jersey, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after May 19, 2007, through June 16, 2010, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, and are also eligible to apply for alternative trade adjustment assistance under Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 25th day of September 2008.
