

ICR Status: This ICR is for a new information collection activity. An Agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information, unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number. The OMB control numbers for EPA's regulations in title 40 of the CFR, after appearing in the Federal Register when approved, are listed in 40 CFR part 9, are displayed either by publication in the Federal Register or by other appropriate means, such as on the related collection instrument or form, if applicable. The display of OMB control numbers in certain EPA regulations is consolidated in 40 CFR part 9.

Abstract: In order to evaluate current stormwater management practices, the scope of the current State and local programs, current new and redevelopment projects, and any EPA regulation to control long term stormwater discharges from developed sites, EPA is proposing several data collection activities. Because this regulation could impact many different types of entities, the ICR announced today consists of multiple questionnaire instruments designed to collect information from: Owners and developers of residential, commercial, industrial, and non-commercial sites; owners and operators of Municipal Separate Storm Sewer Systems (MS4s) (including transportation-related facilities such as State, county, and local departments of transportation that own/operate roadway systems); and States and EPA regions which are NPDES permitting authorities.

EPA is distributing the Owner/Developer Questionnaires to collect information on development and redevelopment projects and long term stormwater discharge controls and/or BMPs installed at these projects. EPA is particularly interested in obtaining information on those controls/BMPs that promote onsite stormwater retention. This information will be used to assist EPA in evaluating various regulatory options and determining the project level and nationwide costs and pollutant reductions associated with regulating long-term stormwater discharges associated from newly developed and redeveloped sites. Additionally, EPA will collect financial data to assess the economic impact of the proposed rulemaking.

The MS4, Transportation, and NPDES Permitting Authority Questionnaires will collect information on the scope of current State, county and local stormwater programs and the stormwater management practices or standards that are currently required for controlling long term stormwater discharges from developed sites. This includes stormwater program implementation such as jurisdiction, implementation, oversight, enforcement, maintenance and monitoring as well as program requirements such as retrofit of existing development and performance standards, design criteria, or retention practices for long term stormwater discharge control at newly and redeveloped sites. Additionally, EPA will collect associated budget and funding information. EPA intends to use this information to assess existing conditions, regulatory options, and the costs and impact to MS4s, and NPDES Permitting Authorities that may result from a regulation.

Burden Statement: The annual public reporting and recordkeeping burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 30 hours per response. Burden means the total time, effort, or financial resources expended by persons to generate, maintain, retain, or disclose or provide information to or for a Federal agency. This includes the time needed to review instructions; develop, acquire, install, and utilize technology and systems for the purposes of collecting, validating, and verifying information, processing and maintaining information, and disclosing and providing information; adjust the existing ways to comply with any previously applicable instructions and requirements which have subsequently changed; train personnel to be able to respond to a collection of information; search data sources; complete and review the collection of information; and transmit or otherwise disclose the information.

The ICR support statement contained in the docket provides a detailed explanation of the Agency's estimate, which is only briefly summarized here:

Estimated total number of potential respondents: 5,516.

Frequency of response: Once.

Estimated total annual burden hours: 167,669.

Estimated total annual costs: $7,009,179. This includes an estimated burden cost of $6,971,692 for labor and $37,487 for operations and maintenance.

Title: Great Lakes Accountability System.

ICR Numbers: EPA ICR No. 2379.01, OMB Control No. 2005-NEW.

ICR status: This ICR is for a new information collection activity. An Agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information, unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number. The OMB control numbers for EPA's regulations in title 40 of the CFR, after appearing in the Federal Register when approved, are listed in 40 CFR part 9 and are displayed either by publication in the Federal Register or by other appropriate means, such as on the related collection instrument or form, if applicable. Abstract: In 2010, EPA, in concert with its Federal partners, will begin implementation of a new Great Lakes Restoration Initiative (GLRI) that was included in the Department of the Interior, Environment, and Related Agencies Appropriations Act, 2010 (Pub. L. 111-88). The GLRI will invest funds in programs and projects strategically chosen to target the most significant environmental problems in the Great Lakes ecosystem.

The legislation calls for increased accountability for the GLRI and directs EPA to implement a process to track, measure, and report on progress. As part of this process, Federal and non-Federal entities receiving GLRI funds will be required to submit detailed information on GLRI projects as part of their funding agreement. Recipients will be required to provide information on the nature of the activity, responsible organization, organizational point of contact, resource levels, geographic location, major milestones and progress toward GLRI goals. The information is necessary to provide an accurate depiction of activities, progress, and results. Information will be updated on a quarterly basis.

A Web-based Great Lakes Accountability System (GLAS) will be the primary mechanism for collecting information on GLRI activities. GLAS will be available at <http://restore.glnpo.net:8080/glas/login.htm>. The Web-site will contain a user-friendly data entry interface for recipients to enter and submit project information directly into the GLAS. The data entry interface consists of a series of screens containing pull-down menus and text boxes, where users can enter project specific information. The GLAS will provide the necessary information for reports to the President and Congress and will be accessible to the public via Internet.
