

court on October 22, 2019, in Center for Biological Diversity et al. v. EPA et al. (N.D. Ca) (3:11-cv-00293). EPA stated in that settlement that it would also include the herbicides propazine and glyphosate in this group of effects determinations. The Agency has completed a comprehensive, nationwide draft BE for the use of glyphosate relative to the potential effects on listed species and their designated critical habitats.

After considering a number of requests to extend the comment period received from various stakeholders, EPA is extending the comment period for the following reasons: (1) The length, complexity, and highly technical nature of the draft biological evaluations; (2) the need for some stakeholders to engage experts familiar with the subject matter to assist them with providing comments; (3) the large number of stakeholders potentially impacted by the draft biological evaluations; (4) the importance of soliciting feedback from stakeholders who may be affected; and (5) the stakeholders' need for additional time to review and develop constructive comments for this BE document. This document extends the comment period for 45 days, from January 26, 2021 to March 12, 2021.

To submit comments, or access the docket, please follow the detailed instructions provided under ADDRESSES in the Federal Register document of November 27, 2020. Abstract: Section 404(g) of the Federal Water Pollution Control Act (FWPCA), or the Clean Water Act (CWA) as it is commonly called,<sup>1</sup> authorizes States and Tribes to assume the section 404 permit program for discharges of dredged or fill material into certain waters of the United States. This ICR covers the collection of information EPA needs to perform its program approval and oversight responsibilities and the State or Tribe needs to implement its program.

Request to assume CWA section 404 permit program. States and Tribes must demonstrate that they meet the statutory and regulatory requirements at 40 CFR part 233 for an approvable program. Specified information and documents must be submitted by the State or Tribe to EPA to request assumption and must be sufficient to enable EPA to undertake a thorough analysis of the State or tribal program. The information contained in the assumption request submission is provided to the other involved federal agencies (e.g., U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, and National Marine Fisheries Service) and to the general public for review and comment.

Permit application information. States and Tribes with assumed programs must be able to issue permits that assure compliance with all applicable statutory and regulatory requirements, including the CWA section 404(b)(1) Guidelines. Sufficient information must be provided in the application so that States or Tribes and federal agencies reviewing the permit are able to evaluate, avoid, minimize, and compensate for any anticipated impacts resulting from the proposed project. EPA's assumption regulations at 40 CFR 233.30 establish required and recommended elements that should be included in the State or Tribe's permit application, so that sufficient information is available to make a thorough analysis of anticipated impacts. These minimum information requirements generally reflect the information that must be submitted when applying for a section 404 permit from the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers. (CWA section 404(h); CWA section 404(j); 40 CFR 230.10, 233.20, 233.21, 233.34, and 233.50; 33 CFR 325)).

Annual report and program information. EPA has an oversight role for assumed section 404 permitting programs to ensure that State or tribal programs are in compliance with applicable requirements and that State or tribal permit decisions adequately consider, avoid, minimize, and compensate for anticipated impacts. States and tribes must evaluate their programs annually and submit the results in a report to EPA. EPA's assumption regulations at 40 CFR 233.52 establish minimum requirements for the annual report.

The information included in the State or Tribe's assumption request and the information included in a permit application is made available for public review and comment. The information included in the annual report to EPA is made available to the public. EPA does not make any assurances of confidentiality for this information.

Form numbers: None.

Respondents/affected entities: Entities potentially affected by this action are those States requesting assumption of the CWA section 404 permit program; States with approved assumed programs; and permit applicants for assumed State programs. No Tribes are expected to assume at this time.

Respondent's obligation to respond: Required to obtain or retain a benefit (40 CFR 233).

Estimated number of respondents: Two States to request program assumption; 9,022 permit applicants (2,255.5 applications per State); and four States with assumed programs (the two current programs and potentially two that may be approved under this ICR) which will submit an annual report.

Frequency of response: States will respond one time to request assumption; if the program is approved, they will respond annually for the annual report; permit applicants will respond one time when requesting a permit.

Total estimated burden: The public reporting and recordkeeping burden for this collection of information is estimated to be 165,755.4 hours per year (1,012 hours to request program assumption times two States (2,024 hours) over a three-year period (675 hours); 2,255.5 permit applications reviewed by four States times 12.7 hours per application (114,579.40 hours); 4,511 permit applications in the two State-assumed programs times 11 hours per permit application (49,621); and 110 hours to prepare an annual report times four State assumed programs (440 hours)). The burden to EPA for related activities is 8,455 hours per year (442 hours to review assumption requests times two States (884 hours) over a three-year period (295); 100 permit applications times 80 hours per application review (8,000 hours); and 40 hours to review an annual report times four State assumed programs (160 hours). Burden is defined at 5 CFR 1320.03(b).

Total estimated cost: Costs to States for assumed section 404 permit programs will vary widely by State and permit; however, the total estimated costs for four programs is $5,641,625.21 and costs to permittees in State-assumed programs is $1,266,824.13. There are $0 capital or operation and maintenance costs. The cost to EPA for related activities is $502,251.20 in labor costs (per year), includes $0 annualized capital or operation and maintenance costs.

Changes in estimates: There is an increase of 45,250.4 hours in the total estimated respondent burden compared with the ICR currently approved by OMB (128,960 hours in the current ICR). There are several reasons for this increase: (1) A small increase in the estimate of hours required to assume a program based on information provided by Michigan and New Jersey, the two States that are currently approved by EPA to administer a State dredged and fill program; (2) recent changes to policy in 2020 addressing endangered species and historic preservation requiring additional burden for States and federal agencies; (3) this estimate for the first time includes and reports burden to State-assumed programs of permit review and burden to permittees (prior ICRs did not calculate this burden due to lack of data); and (4) adjustments reflecting a small increase in the estimate of hours reported for review of permits by Michigan and New Jersey, as well as a small increase in the time reported to complete the annual report by Michigan. The estimate for number of permits per state has been reduced based on data provided by New Jersey and Michigan (down to 2,255.5 per state from the prior estimate of 2,975).

Draft National Pollutant Discharge Elimination System (NPDES) Pesticide General Permit for Point Source Discharges From the Application of Pesticides; Reissuance

AGENCY: Environmental Protection Agency (EPA).

ACTION: Notice of draft permit and request for public comment.

SUMMARY: All ten Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) Regions are proposing for public comment the draft 2021 National Pollutant Discharge Elimination System (NPDES) pesticide general permit (PGP)—the draft 2021 PGP. The draft 2021 PGP covers point source discharges from the application of pesticides to waters of the United States. Once finalized, the draft 2021 PGP will replace the existing permit, the 2016 PGP, which was issued for a five-year term in the Federal Register on October 31, 2016, and expires October 31, 2021, at midnight. The draft 2021 PGP has the same conditions and requirements as the 2016 PGP and would authorize certain point source discharges from the application of pesticides to waters of the United States in accordance with the terms and conditions described therein. EPA proposes to issue this permit for five (5) years in all areas of the country where EPA is the NPDES permitting authority. EPA solicits public comment on all aspects of the draft 2021 PGP. This Federal Register document describes the draft 2021 PGP in general and seeks comment as described in Section III.C. of this document. The Fact Sheet accompanying the permit contains supporting documentation. EPA encourages the public to read the Fact Sheet to understand the draft 2021 PGP better.

DATES: Comments on the draft 2021 PGP must be received on or before March 16, 2021.

ADDRESSES: Submit your comments, identified by Docket ID No. EPA-HQ-OW-2020-0005, to the Federal eRulemaking Portal: <http://www.regulations.gov>. Follow the online instructions for submitting comments.
