Visit the Federal eRulemaking Portal for additional instructions on providing comments via the portal. If electronic submission of comments is not feasible due to a lack of access to a computer and/or the internet, please contact the USPTO using the contact information below for special instructions regarding how to submit comments by mail or by hand delivery.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Will Covey, Deputy General Counsel for Enrollment and Discipline and Director of the Office of Enrollment and Discipline, at 571–272–4097.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On April 12, 2023, the USPTO sought input from the public on the patent pro bono programs to evaluate the programs and make recommendations and improvements that will strengthen their reach and impact. See Study of the Patent Pro Bono Programs; Notice of Public Listening Sessions and Request for Comments, 88 FR 22012. The notice requested public comments by July 11, 2023.

In view of the importance of this effort, and in response to stakeholder feedback, the USPTO is extending the period for public comments on the patent pro bono programs until August 11, 2023. As stated in the April 12, 2023, notice, the USPTO seeks feedback from a broad range of stakeholders, including, but not limited to, inventors, small businesses, entrepreneurs, patent attorneys, patent agents, law firms, nonprofit organizations, academic institutions, public interest groups, and the general public. The USPTO desires feedback from stakeholders so it can, as appropriate, evaluate the programs and make recommendations to Congress regarding possible administrative and legislative actions. All other information provided in the April 12, 2023, notice remains unchanged. Previously submitted comments do not need to be resubmitted.

Katherine K. Vidal,

Under Secretary of Commerce for Intellectual Property and Director of the United States Patent and Trademark Office.
