Information Collection Requirement

Purpose of Data Collection

Under the Aviation and Transportation Security Act (ATSA) (Pub. L. 107-71, 115 Stat. 597 (November 19, 2001)) and delegated authority from the Secretary of Homeland Security, TSA has broad responsibility and authority for "security in all modes of transportation * * * including security responsibilities * * * over modes of transportation that are exercised by the Department of Transportation."¹ Pipeline transportation is a mode of transportation over which TSA has jurisdiction. The Pipeline Security Division within the Office of Transportation Sector Network Management (TSNM) has the lead within TSA for pipeline matters.

In executing its responsibility for pipeline security, TSNM has employed the Pipeline Security Information Circular (Circular), which was issued on September 5, 2002 by the Department of Transportation's (DOT) Office of Pipeline Safety. The Circular defines critical pipeline facilities, identifies appropriate countermeasures for protecting them, and explains how the Federal government will verify that operators have taken appropriate action to implement satisfactory security procedures and plans. This document has been the primary Federal guideline for pipeline security. In 2008, TSA recognized that the Circular required updating, and initiated a process to amend and supersede the Circular with forthcoming Pipeline Security Guidelines. The document will include recommendations for the voluntary submission of pipeline operator security manager contact information to TSA's Pipeline Security Division and the reporting of security incident data to the Transportation Security Operation Center (TSOC).

¹ See 49 U.S.C. 114(d). The TSA Assistant Secretary's current authorities under ATSA have been delegated by the Secretary of Homeland Security. Section 403(2) of the Homeland Security Act (HSA) of 2002 (Pub. L. 107-296, 116 Stat. 2315 (November 25, 2002)) transferred all functions of TSA, including those of the Secretary of Transportation and the Under Secretary of Transportation related to TSA, to the Secretary of Homeland Security. Pursuant to DHS Delegation Number 7060.2, the Secretary delegated to the Assistant Secretary (then referred to as the Administrator of TSA), subject to the Secretary's guidance and control, the authority vested in the Secretary with respect to TSA, including that in section 403(2) of the HSA.

Description of Data Collection

The draft Pipeline Security Guidelines indicate that each operator should provide TSA with the 24/7 contact information of the company's primary and alternate security manager, and the telephone number of the security operations or control center. Submission of this voluntary information may be done by telephone, email, or any other method convenient to the pipeline operator.

The document also requests that pipeline operators notify the TSOC via telephone or email if any of the following occur:

- Explosions or fires of a suspicious nature affecting pipeline systems, facilities, or assets
 - Actual or suspected attacks on pipeline systems, facilities, or assets
 - Bomb threats or weapons of mass destruction (WMD) threats to pipeline systems, facilities, or assets
 - Theft of pipeline company vehicles, uniforms, or employee credentials
 - Suspicious persons or vehicles around pipeline systems, facilities, assets, or right-of-way
 - Suspicious photography or possible surveillance of pipeline systems, facilities, or assets
 - Suspicious phone calls from people asking about the vulnerabilities or security practices of a pipeline system, facility, or asset operation
 - Suspicious individuals applying for security-sensitive positions in the pipeline company
 - Theft or loss of Sensitive Security Information (SSI) (detailed pipeline maps, security plans, etc.)
 - Actual or suspected cyber attacks that could impact pipeline Supervisory Control and Data Acquisition (SCADA) or enterprise associated IT systems.
- When contacting the TSOC, the draft Guidelines request that pipeline operators provide as much of the following information as possible:
- Name and contact information (e-mail address, telephone number)
 - The time and location of the incident, as specifically as possible
 - A description of the incident or activity involved
 - Who has been notified and what actions have been taken

- The names and/or descriptions of persons involved or suspicious parties and license plates as appropriate.

There are approximately 3,000 pipeline companies in the United States. TSA estimates that pipeline operators will require a maximum of 15 minutes to collect, review, and submit primary/alternate security manager and security operations or control center contact information by telephone or email. Assuming voluntary submission of the requested information by all operators, the potential burden to the public is estimated to be a maximum of 750 hours. (3,000 companies \times 15 minutes = 750 hours) Turnover of security personnel would necessitate changes to previously-submitted contact information on an as-occurring basis. Assuming an annual employee turnover rate of 10 percent, the potential burden to the public is estimated to be a maximum of 75 hours. (3,000 companies \times 10 percent turnover = 300 updates; 300 updates \times 15 minutes = 75 hours)

Reporting of pipeline security incidents will occur on an irregular basis. TSA estimates that approximately 140 incidents will be reported annually, requiring a maximum of 30 minutes to collect, review, and submit event information. The potential burden to the public is estimated to be 70 hours. (140 incidents \times 30 minutes = 70 hours)

Use of Results

TSA's Pipeline Security Division will use the operator contact information to provide security-related information to company security managers and/or the security operations or control center. Additionally, TSA may use operator contact information to solicit additional information following a pipeline security incident. TSA will use the security incident information provided by operators for vulnerability identification and analysis and trend analysis. TSA may also include the information, in redacted form, in the TSA Office of Intelligence Transportation Suspicious Incident Report (TSIR), an unclassified weekly comprehensive review of suspicious incident reporting related to transportation which is provided to industry and government stakeholders. To the extent that incident information provided by pipeline operators is SSI, it will be protected in accordance with procedures meeting the transmission, handling, and storage requirements of SSI set forth in 49 CFR parts 15 and 1520.

Issued in Arlington, Virginia, on July 23, 2009.

Ginger LeMay,

Paperwork Reduction Act Officer, Business Improvements and Communications, Office of Information Technology.
